

Exhibition Katinka Bock "Radio Piombino"

continues until 08.07., The Common Guild, Glasgow

As part of Glasgow International, The Common Guild presents a solo exhibition of works by the Paris-based, German artist Katinka Bock. Working with both lead and ceramics, her exhibition re-imagines the space as a landscape of sculptural elements that transform the building into a "poisoned body".

Screening & Artist Talk Anahita Razmi

Thu, 19.07., 19:00, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Berlin-based artist Anahita Razmi is the Goethe at LUX resident artist for 2018. Her work revolves around cultural transfers and translocations.

Exhibition & Screening

continues until 29.07., Hunterian Art Gallery, Glasgow

This solo exhibition of moving image works and photographs by the internationally renowned filmmaker and artist Ulrike Ottinger, is accompanied by a retrospective screening of her key films. Part of Glasgow International.

All events are free to attend unless our website states otherwise.

Goethe-Institut Glasgow
3 Park Circus
Glasgow G3 6AX

Tel: + 44 141 3322555
info-glasgow@goethe.de

Please check out our Website for further information where you can also subscribe to our electronic cultural newsletter:

www.goethe.de/glasgow

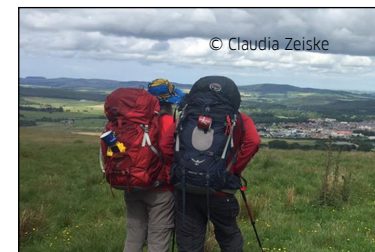

CALENDAR OF EVENTS June–July 2018

CONCERTS

TALK

EXHIBITIONS

FILMS

Book Club Short Stories

Tue, 05.06., 18:30, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

In the last meeting of our book club before the summer break we will discuss this selection of short stories: Saša Stanišić 'Die immens schönen tragischen blöden glückseligen deutschen Flüsse' & 'Im Ferienlager im Wald'; Peter Stamm 'In fremden Gärten'; Judith Hermann 'Gehirn'; Ilse Aichinger 'Das Fenstertheater'.

Film Screenings: Herzog of the Month @ Filmhouse Edinburgh

Sun, 10.06., 18:15: Where the Green Ants Dream

A contemporary environmental morality tale, with flashes of Herzog's idiosyncratic flair.

+ Sun, 22.07., 18:05: Cobra Verde

Director Werner Herzog and leading actor Klaus Kinski in this - the most combustible of cinematic partnerships - is a typically wild adventure.

Talk Home to Home

Mon, 11.06., 18:00, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Claudia Zeiske talks about her 90 day secular pilgrimage walking from her home in Huntly to visit her mother at her childhood home near Munich documenting her journey through the daily writing of post cards and the picking of oak leaves.

Football Screenings and Concert

Sat, 23.06., 19:00, Platform Easterhouse

From Russia with Jazz

In this truly unique event celebrating jazz and football during the real time broadcast of the Germany-vs Sweden match, Glasgow Improvisers Orchestra (GIO) will be teaming up with some of Germany's most accomplished improvising musicians. Amongst them the renowned double bass player Alois Kott, the fabulous wunderkind drummer Christian Lillinger along with DJ IIVibe (Vincent von Schlippenbach). In addition the Goethe-Institut Glasgow will screen live matches of the German football team during the FIFA World Cup.

Digital Concert Hall

Live Stream: Simon Rattle and Magdalena Kožená at the Waldbühne

Sun, 24.06., 19:00, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Join us for this season's last concert by the Berliner Philharmoniker bidding farewell to Sir Simon Rattle in his capacity as the orchestra's chief conductor. Introduced by Paul MacAlindin.

Translators' Stammtisch Border Crossing and Bridge-Building

Thu, 28.06., 18:30, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Our Translators' Stammtisch is open and free to all translators and will meet monthly on a Tuesday or Thursday, from 6.30pm to 8.30pm at the Goethe-Institut Glasgow.

