

PUBLIC EVENT as part of the

3rd Prague Populism Conference

Current Populism in Europe and the Role of the Media

22 May 2017, 16:00 – 19:15

Goethe-Institut Czech Republic
Masarykovo nábř. 32, Prague 1

populism.fsv.cuni.cz

The conference takes place under the auspices of H.M. Tomáš Zima, the Rector of Charles University

Programme

16:00 – 16:15 Opening of the Public Part of the Conference

Berthold Franke (Director, Goethe-Institut Czech Republic)

Jan Royt (Vice-Rector, Charles University)

Eva van de Rakt (Director, Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung e.V., Office Prague)

16:15 – 17:00 Keynote Paper

Wolfgang Merkel (WZB Berlin)

Illiberalism and Populism in East and West

17:00 – 17:15 Coffee Break

17:15 – 17:30 Presentation of the book "Populism in time of crisis" and the special issue of the Czech Journal of Political Science

17:30 – 19:15 EVENING DISCUSSION: Impacts of Populism on Political Systems

Chair: Václav Štětka (Loughborough University)

Anna Frenyó (journalist, Hungary and Germany)

Ricardo Gutiérrez (European Federation of Journalists)

Ondřej Houska (Hospodářské noviny)

Wojciech Przybylski (Visegrad Insight)

19:15 Refreshment

Working languages: English

Simultaneous interpretation will be provided.

More information about the conference is available on

populism.fsv.cuni.cz

Contact person: Martin Mejstrik, mejstrik.m@fsv.cuni.cz

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

