FRANCO-GERMAN FILM SERIES

The Goethe-Institut and the Alliance Française are presenting comedies produced in their respective countries. The next German instalment is 'Fack Ju Göhte' on Fri 2 June by Bora Dagtekin whose wild farce was the most successful German film of 2013. The series completes on the 15th with the French film 'Dans La Cour' by director Pierre Salvadori.

Fri 02.06., starting from 09:00 (full day event), Tramway, Glasgow

SPACES OF EXILE – PERFORMING BORDERS IN EUROPE

How do theatre makers and artists collaborate across borders and contest the current politics of exclusion? How are borders performed, and by whom? What are the ethical implications when borders become sites of contestation? What is at stake in narratives, images and stagings of border crossing bodies? These are questions the symposium "Spaces of Exile" aims to address.

UNDERSTANDING THE MIDDLE EAST

Bringing artists, academics and local people, including Syrian refugees together, the symposium offers an opportunity to appreciate and comprehend the Middle East and its society. German-Syrian artist Manaf Halbouni will be giving an artist talk and presenting his project "What If?", which he has developed during his residency at Deveron Projects in Huntly.

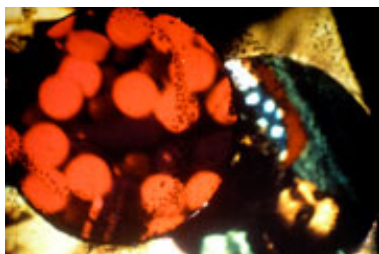

Sun 18.06., 18:20, Filmhouse Edinburgh

LAND OF SILENCE AND DARKNESS (LAND DES SCHWEIGENS UND DER DUNKELHEIT)

The monthly screenings of films by Werner Herzog - one of the most distinctive and accomplished film makers of recent decades – continues. Herzog's profound fascination with the human experience is well demonstrated in this early documentary.
