

Join the Crew!

for a 16 mm Experimental Film shoot
from 4th Sept. to 6th Oct. 2017

Berlin-based artist & filmmaker Bernd Lützeler is bangaloREsident@Experimenta/ Srishti and his project involves shooting an experimental short film (Working title: Endless Supply) on 16 mm.

Bernd is looking for 4 young media professionals (male/female) to build a small film crew. You should speak Kannada & English, be enthusiastic, reliable, committed, flexible and pro-active. We will work five full days a week. We will roam all over the city, by rikshaw, taxi and we're gonna walk a lot, carrying our equipment around! You should be interested in production as well as in the technicalities of the shoot. There will be no actors - no humans in the frame!

Experience with celluloid film or cameras is not required.
This will be taught to the crew in a 6-day workshop.

You will get hands-on experience in:

- operating a 16 mm camera (Bolex H16)
- loading film into the camera
- lenses & exposure
- handling a light meter
- all other technical aspects related to the project

The final cut will be presented in Bangalore in November 2017.

In addition to the practical experience and knowledge, you will receive a modest remuneration.

Interested? Get in touch with Bernd: filmi@gmx.de

goethe.de/bangaloREsidency; bernd-luetzeler.de

EXPERIMENTA INDIA

