

WETTBEWERB | CONTEST

"GERMAN REGGAE GROOVES SOUTH ASIA"

Are you learning German in your school (8th to 11th Standard)?

Are you a music and videography enthusiast?

Would you like to showcase your creative skills?

Here is your chance! You are invited to participate in our video-clip competition.

What is the contest about?

Students in a group of two have to create a video-clip for any one of the following two songs of the German reggae band 'Raggabund': Im Radio 2.0 / Ohne Kompass

The video should contain 25 words in German from one of these songs in written form. Apart from the text, the video-clip must also contain appropriate original and creative moving images.

For more details refer to the attached "Terms and Conditions".

Submit your registration forms along with your entries to your German language teacher. Entries from the schools should reach us by 25th October 2017

What can you win?

The winning team will receive scholarships for a Pasch youth camp. The names of the winners will be announced at the concert of Raggabund on 31st October 2017, Bangalore

For more information, talk to your German language teacher.

www.goethe.de/bangalore

GOETHE
INSTITUT
MAX MUELLER
BHAVAN