

- 09:30 – 10:00 Registration – Tea and coffee
- 10:00 – 10:15 Introductions
- Welcome: Ignacio Peyró, Director of Instituto Cervantes of London
- Welcome: Catarina Ferreira, President of EUNIC London
- Introduction: John Lake, Vice Chair of CILIP ILIG
- 10:15 – 10:55 | Nick Poole, Chair of the Conference | Chief Executive of CILIP

“A Future-Ready Information Profession”

- 10:55 – 11:35 | Silke Hoffmann | Acting Director of Reutlingen Public library
“Future Skills of Librarians - I Am a Networker, a Knowledge Mover, a Source of Inspiration, an Information Specialist”

Short tea & coffee break

- 11:35 – 12:15 | Alexandre López-Borrull | Director of the BSc in Information Science (UOC)
“New Skills for Information Professionals in Knowledge-Intensive Organizations: Open and Big Data”
- 12:15 – 12:55 | Maria Stella Rasetti | Director of Public Library Systems in Pistoia (Tuscany)
“Soft Skills: New Digital Challenges for Librarians in the Digital Age”

Lunch break

- 14:00 – 14:40 | Ana Luisa Costa | Linguistic researcher at the University of Lisbon
“Bridges for Reading”
- 14:45 – 15:00 | Antonia Arahova | Responsible of International Relations National Library of Greece | Chair Division of IFLA's Governing Board

“IFLA Division IV: Support of the Profession. Managing the Change in Education”
Presentation via Skype) tbc.

Tea and coffee break

- 15:15 – 15:55 | Eléna da Rui | Manager of Creteil's four public libraries, Paris
“Keeping imagination and creativity alive: our superiority to learning machines”
- 16:00 – 16:30 | Concluding Panel Discussion with all the speakers

EUROLIS SEMINAR 2017 | Friday 17th November, Royal Society of Arts
Durham St Auditorium (Entrance Durham Street) | Instituto Cervantes London