

EXHIBITION

"THE SHADOWS, German Expressionism in Cinema and its Legacy"

Kastelliotissa Hall, Old Nicosia

7 - 19 November 2017

Evagoras and Kathleen Lanitis Foundation in collaboration with Goethe Institut Cyprus are organising the exhibition, "THE SHADOWS, German Expressionism in Cinema and its Legacy". The exhibition, which includes film screenings, lectures, important exhibits and audiovisual material from this milestone period in the history of cinema, will be inaugurated on Monday, November 6th, 2017 at 19:30 at the Kastelliotissa Hall, in old Nicosia. The exhibition will open for the public on Tuesday, November 7th, and will remain open until November 19th, with free entrance to all. Major Sponsor of the exhibition is the Ministry of Education and Culture and it is being realised in collaboration with Deutsche Kinematek and Murnau Foundation, Germany.

The exhibition - A cinematic journey through German Expressionism

This interactive exhibition combines and includes exhibits, photographic material, documentaries, short and feature films, lectures and workshops in an especially designed hall, inspired by the aesthetics of expressionism.

Screenings

At the especially designed space of Kastelliotissa Hall, the visitors will have the chance to watch films, and excerpts of films. The entrance to all the screenings is free of charge.

Within the framework of the exhibition the following films will be screened:

The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari* (1920), Dir. Robert Wiene, 7/11 (20:30)

Golem* (1920), Dir. Paul Wegener, 8/11 (19:30)

The adventures of Prince Achmed*, Dir. Lotte Reiniger, 10/11 (20:30)

Nosferatu* (1922), Dir. F. W. Murnau, 11/11 (19:30)
