

PROGRAMME

24 November 2017

FADING MEMORIES

Privacy and Data Ownership in the Digital Age

9.30 Registration, Coffee and Tea

10.00 Welcome

10.15 Personal Freedom and Surveillance

- Antoin o Lachtnain, Director of Digital Rights Ireland
“Citizen, Consumer, Producer, Product: the Place of the Person in the Early Digital Age”
- David Korteweg, Researcher at the Dutch Digital Civil Rights Organization
Bits of Freedom
“Identity in Numbers: Our Behavior Reduced to a Statistical Reality”

11.00 Panel Discussion

11.45 Lunch Break

13.30 Algorithms in Everyday Life

- Kari Laumann, Senior Social Scientist at the Norwegian Data Protection Authority
“Artificial Intelligence meets Privacy”
- Una Mullally, Journalist (Ireland)
“The Content Chooses You”

14.15 Panel Discussion

15.00 Break

15.15 Regulation

- Heikki Heikkilä, Senior Researcher, Research Centre for Journalism, Media and Communication (COMET) in Finland
“Surveillance, Regulation & Privacy”
- Rasmus Fleischer, Postdoctoral researcher at the department of economic history, Stockholm University
“The Future of Surveillance: Advertising, Credit Scoring and National Security”
- Charles Raab, Professorial Fellow, Politics and International Relations, University of Edinburgh

16.00 Panel Discussion

16.45 Joint panel

17.30 End

Goethe-Institut Rotterdam
Westersingel 9
3014 GM Rotterdam
Netherlands

T +44 20 7596 4000
info@rotterdam.goethe.org

www.goethe.de

GOETHE
INSTITUT

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.