Contemporary and classical films from Austria, Czech Republic, France, Denmark, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Norway, Romania, Slovakia, Sweden and United Kingdom are being screened in the Cinematheque.

ILOILO CITY, Philippines (As released) — Ilonggos have until 29 October to catch up with the Cine Europa fever at the Film Development Council of the Philippines' Cinematheque in Iloilo City.

For the fifth time, FDCP is hosting the film festival in Iloilo City whose public screenings started on 24 October with the film "Sult" (Hunger) from Denmark.

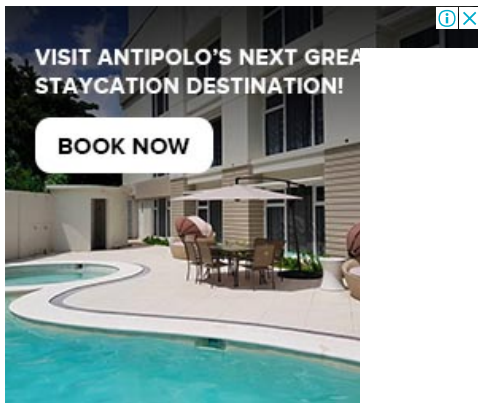

Contemporary and classical films from Austria, Czech Republic, France, Denmark, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Norway, Romania, Slovakia, Sweden and United Kingdom are being screened in the Cinematheque.

Mattias Lentz, Minister Counsellor of the EU Delegation to the Philippines, is joined by British Ambassador Daniel Robert Pruce and officials of the Film Development Council of the Philippines in Iloilo City in showcasing Cine Europa on October 27. The featured film that day is "A Moving Image" from the United Kingdom.

"A Moving Image" is the story about Nina, a young stifled artist, who returns to her community after a long absence and is soon painted as a symbol of gentrification. As she struggles with her own complicity, she begins to create a piece of art that can bring her community together.

Lentz said that the EU Delegation to the Philippines and the EU Member States' Embassies and Cultural Institutes are happy that Cine Europa is again screening in Iloilo, considering the high regard of the Ilonggos for their cultural heritage.

Cine Europa is proud to be the longest running film festival in the country. Being well established, the festival yearly reaches a large audience all over the country, with films being shown in a variety of venues, ranging from theaters to malls and to universities.

This years' festival started in Manila and then went on to Baguio and Naga City. After concluding in Iloilo, it will go to Cebu, Tacloban, Baybay and Puerto Princesa. The theme for this edition of the Cine Europa is "the best of classical and contemporary."

The venue of all the film screenings in Iloilo is at the FDCP Cinematheque. Admission is free on a first-come, first-served basis.

Cine Europa is presented by the European Union Delegation to the Philippines, the EU member states' embassies, Embassy of Norway, cultural institutes, Alliance Francaise de Manille, British Council, Instituto Cervantes of Manila, Goethe Institut Manila, Philippine-Italian Association, EU MS Consulates and its partner organisations from the private sector, academe and government agencies.
