

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Deutschlandjahr USA 2018/19 Applications

Last update: 01/22/2018

Q: What should I do if, due to technical difficulties, I am unable to submit my application before the deadline?

A: If you are unable to submit your application due to technical problems relating solely to the online application system, please email us (deutschland-usa@goethe.de) at the latest by January 22, 2018. In the email please describe the specific issue that you encountered, including evidence such as screenshots.

Q: What is the timeframe for which the programs can take place?

A: The Deutschlandjahr campaign will last one year starting in October 2018.

Q: Will the campaign only take place in the US or does it include projects in Germany?

A: The primary focus of the campaign is inside the US, but some projects may also include some elements in Germany.

Q: Is it possible to make changes to an application I have already submitted?

A: Unfortunately, changes cannot be made to applications once projects are fully submitted.

Q: If selected, to what degree will the applicant be involved in the implementation of the proposed project?

A: The implementation of the project is the sole responsibility of the applicant or applicant organization.

Q: Who is legally responsible for proposed projects that are included in the Deutschlandjahr campaign?

A: Who is legally responsible for proposed projects that are included in the Deutschlandjahr campaign?

GOETHE INSTITUT

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.

Q: Will there be a second round for project applications in 2019?

A: A second round of applications has been planned for but so far has not yet been scheduled. We will announce publicly once a timeline for the second round of applications has been confirmed. If you would like to be contacted via email please send us your contact information to deutschland-usa@goethe.de.