Film Festival: 31.08. – 03.09.2017, 11th International Silent Film Festival Manila

The much-awaited International Silent Film Festival Manila (ISFFM) is back! Established in 2007 as the very first event of its kind in Asia, the ISFFM promises to bring once more to Manila film buffs and music aficionados an extraordinary experience. It is slated this year from August 31 to September 3 at the Shangri-La Plaza Cineplex in Mandaluyong.

The Goethe-Institut Philippinen participates once more, this time, with the film Pandora's Box (1929) by G. W. Pabst.

Pandora's Box follows the story of a seductive young woman named Lulu, whose raw sexuality and uninhibited nature bring ruin to herself and those who love her. Sensationally modern, the film is notable for its lesbian subplot and is one of silent cinema's greatest masterworks.

Sandwich is a Filipino alternative rock band consisting of lead vocalist Raimund Marasigan, guitarists Diego Castillo and Mong Alcaraz, bassist Myrene Academia and drummer Mike Dizon. Sandwich has been making music for more than a decade now, and still continues to live up to their passion—a trademark of energetic performances.
