

Translators' Stammtisch Border Crossing and Bridge-Building

Tue, 29.05., 18:30, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Our Translators' Stammtisch is open and free to all translators and will meet monthly on a Tuesday or Thursday, from 6.30pm to 8.30pm at the Goethe-Institut Glasgow.

Exhibition Katinka Bock "Radio Piombino"

continues until 08.07., The Common Guild, Glasgow

As part of Glasgow International, The Common Guild presents a solo exhibition of works by the Paris-based, German artist Katinka Bock. Working with both lead and ceramics, her exhibition re-imagines the space as a landscape of sculptural elements that transform the building into a "poisoned body".

Exhibition & Screening

continues until 29.07., Hunterian Art Gallery, Glasgow

This solo exhibition of moving image works and photographs by the internationally renowned filmmaker and artist Ulrike Ottinger, is accompanied by a retrospective screening of her key films. Part of Glasgow International.

All events are free to attend unless otherwise stated.

Goethe-Institut Glasgow
3 Park Circus
Glasgow G3 6AX

Tel: + 44 141 3322555
info-glasgow@goethe.de

Please check out our Website for further information where you can also subscribe to our electronic cultural newsletter:

www.goethe.de/glasgow

CALENDAR OF EVENTS May 2018

PERFORMANCES

CONCERT

EXHIBITIONS

FILMS

Digital Concert Hall
Live Stream: Tugan Sokhiev conducts the 'Symphonie classique' & 'Pictures at an Exhibition'

Sat, 12.05., 17:45, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Join us for this Live Stream of a concert with the Berliner Philharmoniker conducted by Tugan Sokhiev and introduced by Scottish conductor Paul MacAlindin.

Film Screenings

Sun, 13.05., 17:50, Filmhouse Edinburgh

Herzog of the month: Rescue Dawn

A spectacular and thrilling Vietnam War-era adventure tale based on the extraordinary true story of American pilot Dieter Dengler (Christian Bale), the subject of Herzog's documentary 'Little Dieter needs to fly'.

Tue, 22.05., 18:30, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Farewell to Europe

Join us to watch a visually stunning historical film (Vor der Morgenröte) by director Maria Schrader about the Austrian-Jewish writer Stefan Zweig in a time when Europe was on the brink of calamity.

Thu, 24.05., 18:30, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Transit Arts presents Amie Siegel's 'DDR/DDR (2008)'

Republic (1949–1990). Introduced by Professor Laura Bradley, Chair of German and Theatre at the University of Edinburgh. Part of the RFN Scotland 6818 festival.

Deutsche Runde (Level B1+)
Language Games for Mental Fitness

Thu, 17.05., 13:00, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

For our final session of this term we offer a variety of language games which will help you practise vocabulary, train your memory and show simple ways of integrating language practice into your daily routine.

Franco-German Storytelling

Wed, 23.05, 16:00, Goethe-Institut Glasgow

Reading is a perfect way to encourage children's love for stories, languages and creativity at a young age. It allows them to experience different cultures, countries and traditions. We will be reading 'The Town Musicians of Bremen, a classic and popular German fairy tale by the Brothers Grimm.

Theatre Performance
Imagine Festival: 'Things to Wear' by Theaterhaus Ensemble

Tue 29. - Thu 31.05, Studio @ Festival Theatre Edinburgh

Two opera-trained performers create a tender and enigmatic atmosphere, accompanying their play with beautiful singing from Henry Purcell's baroque opera 'The Fairy Queen'. An ideal first experience for young audiences of live theatre, full of humour & imagination.

