GOETHE INSTITUT

we will have been young looks at the works of 12 photographers from the Southeast Asian Photography Masterclass. The artists all met for a workshop to produce photographic essays under the mentorship of two renowned German photographers, Jörg Brüggemann and Tobias Kruse of the Ostkreuz Photographer's Agency in Berlin. In this exhibit, they look into themes surrounding the youth and the future, specifically how immortality and long-lasting memory can be achieved through photographs.
