EVENT DESCRIPTION

EVENT #: 30165

Look into an interpretation of the youth and the future through the lenses of twelve young Southeast Asian photographers in an exhibit presented by Goethe-Institut, the OBSCURA Festival of Photography and the Ostkreuz Agentur der Fotografen, this July 25 to August 25, 2018, at the 1335 Mabini Gallery, Ermita, Manila. The exhibition entitled "we will have been young" will be opening on July 25, 2018 at (time) featuring a talk with the two Filipino photographers, Geric Cruz and Dennese Victoria, whose works are included in the exhibition.

"we will have been young" is a product of the Southeast Asian Photography Masterclass 2016-17 in Penang, Malaysia where young photographers from Southeast Asia met for a workshop to produce photographic essays under the mentorship of two renowned German photographers, Jörg Brüggemann and Tobias Kruse of the Ostkreuz Photographer's Agency in Berlin. It showcases works by:

- Alvin Lau "Is This What Love Is" (Malaysia),
- Amrita Chandradas "All is Not Lost" (Singapore),
- Muhammad Fadli "Vespa Warriors" (Indonesia),
- Dennese Victoria "Day Spent with Pretend Family" (Phillipines),
- Dwi Asrul Fajar "A Stream Under the Table" (Indonesia),
- Elliott Koon "Sons of the Soil" (Malaysia),
- Geric Cruz "Eva" (Phillipines),
- Kanel Khiev "Before the Raze" (Cambodia),
- Lee Chang Ming "Until Then" (Singapore),
- Linh Pham "Behind Closed Doors" (Vietnam),
- Watsamon Tri-yasakda "7465" (Thailand), and
- Yu Yu Myint Than "Memory Lane" (Myanmar).

Schedule of events:
