We're inviting you to #BAPFilmScreening Dark Skull by Kiro Russo on Saturday, April 6, 7PM at BAP Outpost.

⤴

A hybrid work set in the uniquely rough world of the Bolivian mines, Dark Skull is a character drama and an idiosyncratic portrait of workers' daily lives. The narrative unfolds around the troubled and troublesome Elder, sent to live with his grandmother in Huanuni, a small country town in Bolivia. Once there, Elder proves a constant embarrassment to his godfather, Francisco, frequently skipping work to get drunk or high. But his off-the-clock activities eventually lead him to a dark secret about Francisco's involvement in his father's death. Shot largely inside the mines, and made in collaboration with the miners' union, Kiro Russo's elegant and formally daring film employs an ambitious structure and gorgeous cinematography to express the nuances and codes of the workers.

👤

The film brings to light the dark narratives linked to extractivist economies, and the geopolitics around mining which are found in Lucy Raven's Chinatown (2009) currently on view at BAP Outpost.

Special thanks to Socavón Cine and Kiro Russo.

Join us on April 7, Sunday for the launch of "Everywhere, There You Are" by Ling Quisumbing Ramilo and Wawi Navarroza. This installation is the inaugural project of the Ignacio B Gimenez Outdoor Installation Grant Program.

Ling and Wawi were invited to re-install this project that they created earlier in two editions for the Malasimbo Art and Music Festival in Mindoro. Composed of fishing nets and strips of fluorescent orange fabric, the panels create segments of kinetic wall interacting with the multi-directional flow of the wind. Visitors are allowed to walk through and experience movement and color. For its iteration in Areté, the installation will be grander in scale, a quality which both artists have always been wanting to explore. Everywhere, There You Are will be on site starting April 7 until September 8, 2019.

For more information about the event, please email us at aag@ateneo.edu or call us at 426-6488.
