Thursday, 25. July 2019
6.00 pm to 8.00 pm

Opening and 'Art for All' Portrait Studio

We are redefining who is an artist for the opening of the exhibition, so you can experience first-hand, what happens when art is truly for all. Come by for a walk through of the exhibition, have your portrait sketched, and join the conversation and debate on why we think art should be for, of and by all.

Saturday, 27. July 2019
4.00 pm to 4.00 pm

Social Art Lab

What is the role of art in society, especially in these divisive and fast changing times? Should artists and civil society organizations collaborate? What does one need to learn from each other in order to shape a more critical, empathetic and inclusive society? The programme will include exploring these critical questions and working towards building new collaborations through a half day Lab.

This Lab will be facilitated by some of the leading NGOs, arts organizations and artists in Kolkata including Anjali, Jungle Crows Foundation, ThinkArts, Art Rickshaw and Hamdasti and is free and open to all.

Wednesday, 31. July 2019
6.00 pm to 8.00 pm

Artist Presentations

The artists, participants and organizations who came together to develop the community art projects at the CPT Colony and Pavlov Hospital had to step out of their comfort zones, devise new methodologies of collaboration and art-making, while attempting to create something that is meaningful. Come, experience their journeys, and explore the process of developing CPT Chalo Painting Tangai and Across the Lines. Help us unpack the questions, challenges and traces that remain and chart the road ahead.

ALL THE ABOVE PROGRAMMES ARE OPEN TO EVERYONE
