1. General Requirements

Course participants must be at least 18 years of age.

2. Participation / Enrollment confirmation

- 2.1. After enrolling in the course, the participant is sent confirmation (referred to below as "enrollment confirmation") by Goethe-Institut e.V. ("GI") of enrollment in the selected course, the accommodation booking and the meal arrangements (referred to as "the course"). With receipt of the enrollment confirmation by the participant, the contract takes effect.
- 2.2. An invoice is forwarded with the enrollment confirmation, informing the participant of the payable course fees, which include all services specified in 2.1. above (instruction, accommodation, meals), indicating the payment deadline and the participant number.
- 2.3. In principle, consumers have a right to cancel. More information on the right to cancel is provided in the notice on the right to cancel at the end of the Terms and Conditions.

3. Prices and terms of payment

- 3.1. The price list for courses, accommodation and meals in effect at the time of enrollment is an integral part of the contract. Please refer to www.goethe.de/anmeldung-deutschland.
- 3.2. The course fee is payable in full to the GI at the payment deadline shown in the invoice. The payment date is defined as the date at which the payment is credited to the GI account specified in the enrollment confirmation. The money transfer must indicate the course participant number.
- 3.3. All bank charges related to the payment of the course fee shall be borne by the course participant.
- 3.4. If the GI does not receive full payment of the course fees by the due date, the participant will no longer be entitled to the services booked. In this case the GI is entitled to make the services available to other interested parties.
- 3.5. In case of non-attendance at the booked course, delayed arrival, early departure or withdrawal from a course, or any other absences (e.g. due to illness), there is no claim to reimbursement of the course fees.

4. Changes to course bookings

In exceptional cases participants may change the services booked (e.g. the course date) in consultation with the GI. The first change is free of charge. A fee of €60 is payable for each additional booking change.

5. Cancellation

- 5.1. The course participant can cancel the course booking subject to the following conditions.
 - _ In case of cancellation no later than four weeks prior to the start of the course, the GI will withhold an administrative fee of €160.
 - _ In case of cancellation no later than one week prior to the start of the course, GI will withhold an amount equal to 30% of the course fee, but not less than the administrative fee of €160.
 - _ In case of cancellation no later than one day prior to the start of the course, GI will withhold an amount equal to 50% of the course fee, but not less than the administrative fee of €160.
 - _ In case of withdrawal after the start of the course, GI will withhold 100% of the course fee.

The course participant may submit evidence to show that it would be appropriate for a lesser amount to be withheld in an individual case.
 - 5.2. The course participant can cancel accommodation arrangements free of charge up to four (4) weeks before the start of the course. Cancellation at a later date is not possible.
 - 5.3. The cancellation must be submitted in writing (or by e-mail) to GI using the contact addresses indicated in the enrollment confirmation. The cancellation date is defined as the date of receipt of the cancellation declaration at the contact address specified in the enrollment confirmation.
- 6. Course level assignment / class size
- 6.1. The assignment to a course level is made on the basis of a placement test carried out at the course location.
 - 6.2. In all courses, the maximum class size is 16.

7. Accommodation

- 7.1. On request, the GI offers accommodation for rent. Any request for the booking of accommodation must be indicated when enrolling. Prior inspection of the accommodation is not possible.
- 7.2. The accommodation is rented only on a course by course basis. The date for moving into the accommodation is the published arrival date, and the date for moving out is the published departure date.
- 7.3. The course participant is responsible for exercising due care in the accommodation and keeping it clean during the rental period. At the end of the rental period, the accommodation must be left in a clean and tidy state.
- 7.4. If the accommodation is in a guesthouse, a proper handover must take place at the beginning and end of the rental period between the course participant and a person authorized by the GI (inspection of the state of the rooms, inventory of equipment and other items, etc.).
- 7.5. Guests of the course participant are permitted to stay overnight only with the express permission of the GI.
- 7.6. Any violation of the landlord's house rules will result in termination of the rental agreement without notice with no claim to replacement accommodation or reimbursement of rent paid.
- 7.7. If the accommodation is recommended by the GI, e.g. through a link on the GI website, then GI does not act as the landlord of the accommodation.

8. Responsibilities of participants

- 8.1. It is the responsibility of the course participant to ensure at his/her own expense that his/her stay in Germany is in compliance with the law and that he/she is in possession of any required entry permit, residence permit or visa.
- 8.2. It is the sole responsibility of the course participant to take out health insurance and accident, liability and personal property insurance. GI assumes no liability in this area.
- 8.3. Participants are obliged to comply with the course rules and house rules applicable to the Goethe-Instituts.

9. Liability of the GI

- 9.1. GI is subject to liability – regardless of the legal cause – only in case of gross negligence or intent.
- 9.2. GI is also liable in case of ordinary negligence in case of damage resulting in death, injury or harm to health as well as damages for the culpable violation of a material contractual violation.
- 9.3. Any other contractual or tort claims of the course participant are explicitly precluded.

10. Force majeure

Neither GI nor its employees are liable for non-performance of contractual obligations or damages to the extent that they are caused by force majeure, in particular fire, water, storm or other natural events, explosion, strike, war, civil unrest or other reasons outside the sphere of responsibility/influence of the Goethe-Institut.

11. Privacy protection

GI collects, processes and uses the personal data of the course participant both for the purpose of fulfilling the contract signed with the course participant and as permitted by law and under the terms of any signed declaration of consent in compliance with privacy protection laws. For further details see the separate privacy declaration to which we hereby explicitly refer.

12. Applicable law

These terms and conditions and all legal relations between the GI and the course participant are subject to the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany. The place of jurisdiction is Munich, Germany.

13. Severance clause

Should sections or individual formulations in these terms and conditions prove invalid or ineffective, this shall have no effect on the remaining sections and their validity. The ineffective provision shall be replaced by the legally admissible provision that most closely approximates the content and economic effect of the ineffective provision.

6. RIGHT TO OBJECTION

The Goethe-Institut takes the protection of your data very seriously. With this privacy policy we would like to inform you transparently about which personal data („your data“) we collect, process, and use process and use, if you register for a course and / or exam at the Goethe-Institut.

1. DATA COLLECTION AND USE FOR CONTRACT EXECUTION

We collect personal data if you provide it to us when contacting us (e.g. by contact form or email), or during a course, or exam booking. The specific data collected in detail, as well as the information which is mandatory and that which is voluntary, can be found in the respective input forms.

In these cases, we collect and process the data you have provided for the purpose of carrying out the respective contract, for example, to conduct a placement test for your language courses, or complete a language course including a subsequent examination, as well as to process your inquiries in accordance with Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR. Insofar as you have expressly consented to the processing of special data categories in accordance with Art. 9 (a) lit. GDPR, we collect your health data (e.g. allergies) only for the purpose of which you are informed when granting consent.

After completion of the respective contract, your data will be blocked for further use and deleted after expiry of the tax and commercial retention periods. If statutory fiscal or commercial data retention requirements for individual data do not apply, your information will be deleted immediately after the respective contract has been executed. Any other state of affairs is only valid if you have expressly consented to a further use of your data or if we reserve the right to further data usage, this being permitted by law and of which we will inform you below.

Data transfer for contract execution

As part of the course and examination booking, your personal data is processed in our central language course management system, which is accessible to other Goethe-Instituts within the European Union or the European Economic Area. This is done to execute the contract in accordance with Art. 6 (1) sentence 1 lit. b GDPR and to safeguard our legitimate interests in valid information and correct data records when booking a course in accordance with Art. 6 (1) sentence 1 lit. f GDPR.

For fulfilment of the contract, we will pass on your data to the shipping company commissioned with the delivery, insofar as this is necessary for the delivery of ordered goods. Depending on which payment service provider you select in the order process, we will forward the payment data collected to the credit institution commissioned with the payment and any payment service providers commissioned by us to process the payments or to the selected payment service. In part, the selected payment service providers will also collect this data themselves, provided that you create an account there. In this case, you must log in to the payment service provider with your access data during the ordering process. In this respect, the privacy policy held by the respective payment service provider applies.

As part of the execution of our contracts with you, for example, through the provision of language courses, we pass your data in part to service providers who process them on our behalf and within the framework of a contract between the Goethe-Institut and the respective service provider for order processing. Such a service provider may, for example, be the provider of a software that the Goethe-Institut uses for contract execution.

2. DATA COLLECTION AND USE FOR THE PURPOSES OF DIRECT ADVERTISING

a) Postal advertising

We reserve the right to use your first and last name, and your postal address for our own advertising purposes, e.g. to send you interesting offers and information about our products by post. This serves to safeguard our legitimate interests, which are predominantly justified in the interests of weighing up our interests, in a promotional approach to our customers in accordance with Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR. You can object to the storage and use of your data for these purposes at any time by sending a message to datenschutz@goethe.de.

b) Email newsletters

With the following information we inform you about the contents of our newsletter as well as the registration, sending and statistical evaluation procedures as well as your rights of withdrawal. By subscribing to our newsletter, you agree to receive our mailings and to the procedures described hereafter.

Content of the newsletter: We send newsletters, e-mails and other electronic notifications containing promotional information (hereinafter referred to as "newsletter") only with the consent of the recipient or legal permission. Insofar as the contents of the newsletter are specifically described within the context of registration for the newsletter, they are decisive for the consent of the user. Otherwise, our newsletters contain information about us, our services and activities.

Double-Opt-In and logging: The registration to our newsletter takes place in a so-called Double-Opt-In procedure. This means that you will receive an e-mail after registration asking you to confirm your registration. This confirmation is necessary so that no one can register with someone else's e-mail address. The registrations for the newsletter are logged in order to provide evidence of the registration process in accordance with the legal requirements. This includes storing the login and confirmation times as well as the IP address. Likewise the changes of your data stored with the dispatch service provider are logged.

Registration data: To subscribe to the newsletter, it is sufficient to enter your e-mail address. Optionally we ask you to enter a name in the newsletter in order to address you personally.

The sending of the newsletter and the performance measurement associated with it are based on the consent of the recipients pursuant to Article 6 (1) a), Article 7 GDPR in conjunction with Section 7 (2) No. 3 of the German Unfair Competition Act (UWG) or, if consent is not required, on our legitimate interests in direct marketing pursuant to Article 6 (1) f) GDPR in conjunction with Section 7 (3) UWG.

The registration procedure is recorded on the basis of our legitimate interests pursuant to Article 6 (1) a) GDPR. We are interested in using a user-friendly and secure newsletter system that serves our business interests, meets users' expectations, and allows us to provide evidence of consent.

Withdrawal/cancellation: You can cancel the subscription to our newsletter at any time, i.e. revoke your consent or otherwise object to the reception of our e-mails. You will find a link to cancel the newsletter at the end of each newsletter. We may store the unsubscribed e-mail addresses for up to three years based on our legitimate interests before deleting them to provide evidence of prior consent. The processing of these data is limited to the purpose of a possible defense against any claims. An individual deletion request is possible at any time, provided that the former existence of a consent is confirmed or the disadvantage of the deletion is otherwise compensated.

Newsletter - Mailchimp

The newsletters are sent by the mail service "MailChimp", a newsletter sending platform of the US provider Rocket Science Group, LLC, 675 Ponce De Leon Ave NE #5000, Atlanta, GA 30308, USA. You can view the privacy policy of the mailing service provider here: <https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/>. The Rocket Science Group LLC d/b/a MailChimp is certified under the Privacy Shield Agreement and thereby provides a guarantee of compliance with the European Privacy Level (<https://www.privacyshield.gov/participant?id=a2zt0000000T06hAAG&status=Active>). The mailing service provider will be informed on the basis of our legitimate interests pursuant to Article 6 (1) f) GDPR and a Data Processing Agreement pursuant to Article 28 (3) S. 1 GDPR.

The mailing service provider can use the data of the recipients in pseudonymous form, i.e. without identification of a user, to optimise or improve its own services, e.g. for technical optimisation of the mailing and the display of the newsletter or for statistical purposes. However, the mailing service provider does not use the data of our newsletter recipients to write to them itself or to pass the data on to third parties.

Newsletter - Performance measurement

The newsletters contain a so-called "web-beacon", i.e. a file the size of a pixel, which is retrieved from our server when the newsletter is opened or, if we use a mailing service provider, from its server. Within the scope of this process, technical information, such as information about the browser and your system, as well as your IP address and the time of retrieval are collected.

This information is used for the technical improvement of the services on the basis of technical data or target groups and their reading behaviour on the basis of their locations (which can be determined using the IP address) or access times. Statistical surveys also include determining whether newsletters are opened, when they are opened and which links are clicked. For technical reasons, this information can be assigned to the individual newsletter recipients. It is, however, neither our endeavour nor that of the mailing service provider to observe individual users. The evaluations serve us much more to recognise the reading habits of our users in general, i.e. anonymously, and to adapt our content to them or to send different content according to the interests of our users. A separate withdrawal of the performance measurement is however not possible, in this case the entire newsletter subscription must be cancelled.

3. DATA DISTRIBUTION TO THIRD PARTIES

a) Data transfer to Goethe-Instituts

Insofar as a Goethe-Institut is responsible for you at home or abroad, or if you have registered for a relevant service, your data will be transmitted to this Goethe-Institut, insofar as you have consented to this pursuant to Art. 6 (1) Clause 1 lit. a GDPR.

In the event that you are excluded from an examination by the Goethe-Institut due to one of the reasons stated in the examination regulations, the Goethe-Institut will impose a one-year block exemption on the exam portfolio of the Goethe-Institut worldwide; for the purpose of enforcing this measure (checking compliance with an imposed test ban), your data will be passed on to the Goethe-Institut examination centres (see § 2 of the Examination Regulations) worldwide and processed in them. This is done on the basis of the execution of the joint contract to provide an examination pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR. To the extent that personal data processing takes place in countries outside the European Union or the European Economic Area, this is also based on the necessity of data transfer for the execution of this contract.

b) Data transfer to the central examination archive

If you have consented to it in accordance with Art. 6 (1) Clause 1 lit. a GDPR, for the purpose of checking the authenticity and issuing replacement certificates, data relating to the examinations you have taken will be stored and used in the central examination archive (for a maximum of 10 years).

c) Data transfer to German foreign embassies

For certain visa procedures (for example, spousal reunification, study), German foreign embassies require proof from the applicant of his/her German language skills.

If the Federal Republic of Germany demands it of the state from which the test participant comes, it is necessary that the test participant consent to the transmission of the following personal data, as well as data regarding the completed examination for checking during the visa procedure, to the relevant foreign embassy:

- Personal data (name, date of birth)
- Passport copies/scans
- Photo of the exam participant
- Information about the exam taken: Certificate number, examination result, documents for examination registration, examination documents.

4. DATA PROTECTION

We protect our systems and data processing processes with comprehensive technical and organisational measures against the loss of, destruction of, access to, modification or dissemination of your data by unauthorised persons.

5. YOUR RIGHTS AND DATA PROTECTION CONTACT INFORMATION

As a data subject, you have the following rights:

- according to Art. 15 GDPR, you have the right to demand information on the personal data processed by us in the scope specified therein;
- in accordance with Art. 16 GDPR, you have the right to demand without delay the correction of incorrect personal data or completion of personal data stored with us;
- according to Art. 17 GDPR, you have the right to demand the deletion of your personal data stored by us, unless further processing is required
 - to exercise the right to freedom of expression and information;
 - to fulfil a legal obligation;
 - for reasons of public interest or
 - to assert, exercise or defend legal claims
- according to Art. 18 GDPR, you have the right to demand the restriction of the processing of your personal data, insofar as
 - the accuracy of the data is disputed by you;
 - the processing is illegal, but you reject its deletion;
 - we no longer need the data, but you need it for asserting, exercising or defending legal claims, or
 - you have filed an objection against the processing in accordance with Art. 21 GDPR;
- according to Art. 20 GDPR, you have the right to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, common, and machine-readable format, or to request the transfer to another responsible party;
- according to Art. 77 GDPR, you have the right to complain to a supervisory authority. As a rule, you can contact the supervisory authority of your usual place of residence or work, or our company headquarters.

If you have any questions regarding the collection, processing or use of your personal data, information, correction, restriction of processing or deletion of data, and revocation of any consent granted or objection to a particular use of data and the right to data portability, please contact our company Data Protection Officer:

6. RIGHT TO OBJECTION

To the extent that we process personal data as explained above in order to safeguard our legitimate interests, which are predominant in the context of a weighing up of interests, you can object to this processing with effect for the future. If the processing is for the purpose of direct marketing, you can exercise this right at any time as described above. Insofar as the processing takes place for other purposes, you are only entitled to a right of objection if there are reasons that arise from your particular situation.

After exercising your right to object, we will not further process your personal data for these purposes, unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms, or if the processing serves the assertion, exercise or defence of legal claims.

This does not apply if the processing is for direct marketing purposes. In that case we will not process your personal data for this purpose.
