

GOETHE-INSTITUT CANADA

TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING THIRD-PARTY PUBLICATION

GOETHE INSTITUT

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.

We freely allow third-party publication of texts posted on www.goethe.de/canada, subject to the following terms and conditions.

- Author's consent: we automatically obtain this consent for you.
- Authors may request compensation for republication.
- If changes are made (e.g. excerpts), they also require the author's approval; stipulate that the passage has been edited.
- Indicate the author's name (and translator's name, if we have used a translation).
- Indicate and add an active link to the original publication at <http://www.goethe.de/Kanada>.
- Credit the source, e.g. "This article was originally published on the site of the Goethe-Institut Kanada at <http://www.goethe.de/Kanada>."
- The rights to images must also be obtained.
- For online publications, provide an active link to <http://www.goethe.de/Kanada> with our logo.

Please notify our editorial staff in Germany as well as Michael Krell web-montreal@goethe.de as soon as the article is published.

For hard-copy publications: mail a copy to:

Internet-Redaktion
Bereich 22 'Internet'
Goethe-Institut e. V.
Dachauer Straße 122
80637 Munich
Germany