

Call for Paper Proposals

2nd Annual National All-Women Conference

“Women in Academia”

Faculty of Social Sciences, Bahir Dar University, Ethiopia

18-19 March 2020

Deadline: 30 November 2019

In order to celebrate achievements of Ethiopian women in academics, this conference invites all Ethiopian female academicians to submit an abstract of their current, unpublished work as it is broadly related to matters of women’s security. These can relate to, but are not limited to matters of physical security, peace, food security, medical security, or technological security. Please propose individual papers, themed panels or innovative panels on women’s security under the following dimensions:

- Agricultural
- Social-cultural
- Socio-economic
- Socio-political, and Peace
- Science and Technology
- Medicine

General Information:

- ✓ 300-word abstracts shall be accompanied with the author’s short bio
- ✓ Notification of accepted abstracts: 15 December 2019
- ✓ Deadline for submission of full-length papers: 1 March 2020
- ✓ Accepted papers and manuscripts may be published in a peer-reviewed conference book
- ✓ Papers should be written in English, only in exceptional cases in Amharic

Abstracts and full length papers shall be sent to Dr. Sewmehon Demissie and Dr. Sonja John:

Email: ConferenceWomenInAcademia@gmail.com

The conference “Women in Academia“ will be organized by a multidisciplinary Organizing Committee and the Gender Director, and will be held at Bahir Dar University, Ethiopia, with support of our partners and sponsors.