JOINTLY ORGANIZED BY

BACKGROUND

EUNIC (European Union National Institutes of Culture, including Alliance Ethio-Francaise, British Council, Embassy of Portugal, Embassy of Spain, Goethe-Institut and Italian Cultural Institute) together with the EU Delegation to Ethiopia, The Urban Center, Destino Dance Company and Fekat Circus will be jointly organizing the cultural street festival Tibeb be Adebabay at public spaces in Addis Abeba in 2020.

The workshop will be a preparatory action for the street festival „Tibeb be Adebabay”. A total of 10 individuals representing solo or groups of creative professionals and event organizers with backgrounds in project management, communications and/or any other related fields will be trained to run the festival in Addis Abeba. As a practical element of the workshop, a structure for the street festival as well as a comprehensive communications plan will be developed jointly.

Out of the 10 workshop participants, 2-3 individuals or representatives of groups will be selected to form the project management team for the 2020 edition of Tibeb be Adebabay.

WHO CAN APPLY?

- Those with backgrounds and a demonstrated competency in project management, communications and/or any other related field.
- Those with the time and willingness to participate fully in the five days' workshop in December and potential availability to organize and run the festival full time (from January till May 2020).
- Those with a good command of English.
