

Tell us your story!

Participants for a study wanted

While staying at Villa Kamogawa German author and director Doris Dörrie is going to work on a new project. She looks for people, who would like to talk about themselves and about their lives. We are looking forward to your applications.

Target persons are:

- Japanese women born in 1989 (age 24)
- Japanese women born in 1955 (age 58)
- Japanese women born in 1931 (age 82)
- Japanese men born in 1920 (age 93)

Knowledge of basic English or German is required.

- Time and location: The meetings will take place between October and mid December in Kyoto
- Other information: Participation is unpaid, traveling expenses are not reimbursed

If you are interested please send an e-mail including your name, year of birth, gender and contact information in Latin letters to projectdoerrie@gmail.com with the subject line „Project in Kyoto“.

Doris Dörrie

Doris Dörrie is a German author and director of film and opera. After her first visit to Japan in 1985 the country became not only an inspiration for movies such as „Cherry blossoms“, „Enlightenment guaranteed“ and „The fisherman and his wife“ but also for numerous operas, which brought her international praise. From September to December 2013 she is staying at Goethe Institut Villa Kamogawa in Kyoto.

©Constantin Film Verleih_Dieter Mayr