

□

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT FOR ONLINE LANGUAGE COURSES

1. The full course fee is due at the time of enrolment through a direct deposit into our account. Fees once paid are not refundable.
2. The receipt must be shown to the teacher on the first day of class.
3. The maximum and minimum number of course participants per class is stipulated as 18 and 8 respectively. Classes can be cancelled or classes of the same level merged in the course of the term. If a class is cancelled and no other class is available at the same level, the course fee of the concerned course participants will be carried forward to the next term.
4. This enrolment for an online course is binding and cannot be changed to a face-to-face session.
5. Admission is open to course participants aged 18 and above. Exceptions require the consent of the Head of Language Department. Secondary School students attending holiday classes are exempted from this requirement.
6. Registration on our online platform “Mein Goethe.de” is mandatory for all online course participants.
7. Enrolment is not transferable. A change of class requires the consent of the Head of Language Department.
8. Course participants must purchase the necessary books for each course where applicable before the course begins. Please note that photocopies contravene copyright laws. The books are available on appointment from the Goethe-Institut.
9. Admission to the next level is subject to the passing of continuous assessment tests during and the international examination at the end of the term. The pass mark for our tests and exams is 60%. The B1 certificate is required for admission to the B2.1 class.
10. Certificates of attendance will be issued at the end of the course only if the attendance has been 70% or more.
11. Lost certificates cannot be replaced. A confirmation letter will be issued in the event of a lost certificate at the cost of KES 2,000/=. Any other confirmation letter is subject to the payment of KES 1,000/=.
12. Admission to the examination (once dates are published) requires written consent from the class teachers.
13. Security checks at the entrance of the institute are mandatory for all course participants and visitors.
14. The declaration of consent form for the transmission of personal data to our headquarters in Munich, Germany must be signed by all course participants and examination candidates.
15. Course participants on sponsorship consent to having data on their course progress including attendance, examination and continuous assessment test results communicated to their sponsors.
16. Course participants consent by their signature to these conditions as well to our general terms and conditions available here <https://www.goethe.de/ins/ke/en/spr/kur/gia/kue.html>

Nairobi, 6th January 2020

Head of Language Department