

Goethe-Institut, Budapesta Str. 1, 1000 Sofia, Bulgarien

Library | Terms of use

Goethe-Institute will provide the space of the library free of charge. Please note that this does not include financial support for your project.

Your event must be open to the public and free of charge. Please feature only your own logo in promotional materials. Goethe-Institut Bulgaria's logo may be featured only with the consent of Goethe-Institut Bulgaria after a preliminary conversation. We ask that you note Goethe-Institut Bulgaria's support for the event in the following way (without a logo): The event will take place at the Goethe-Institut Bulgaria, 1 Budapeshta Str.

Due to safety concerns, during the pandemic only gatherings of up to 25 people will be allowed in the library. Guests need to sign up in advance and the list of attendees must be provided to Goethe-Institut at least one day prior to the event.

The event may take place only if it complies with our hygiene policy. You can read more about it here.

You can arrange the space to meet the needs of your event, as long as you return it back to its original setting.

You are responsible should any damages occur to the library and commit to releasing it in a good state.

If you would like to sell books or anything else in the library, please notify our administration in advance. If we approve, you need to place the following notification in a clearly visible manner: "XXX (ex. books) are sold by XXX (ex. organization name)".

I have read and I agree to the terms of use.
