

International networking for greater inclusivity in culture and the arts

November-December 2020

networking day: 4.12.2020, 14:00-17:00 EEST

Goethe-Institut Ukraine in cooperation with British Council, Creative Europe Desk in Ukraine, and Insha Osvita are inviting cultural and art institutions organizations that are working in the field of inclusion in the cultural sphere in Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Germany, Moldova, UK and Ukraine to network and find international partners for future experience exchange or collaboration. In frames of this program a group of 25 selected cultural managers, artists, producers and activists will get:

- the opportunity to meet international partners from the field of inclusion in the cultural sphere
- in preparation for that: apr. 2 hours of individual mentoring in self-presentation and partner search from 10th till 30th of November 2020
- participate in the online matchmaking event on 4th of December 2020, on 14:00 till 17:00 EEST
- opportunity to get post-event group mentorship on partnerships from 7th till 15th of December 2020

We invite you to join this 4-weeks online journey and multi-step program designed in a way enabling working relationships lasting beyond the project.

If you are:

- an organization or institution working in the field of inclusion in the cultural sphere, or interested in it, having concrete plans
- having an NGO behind you being focused on the mission of inclusive arts
- being located and working in Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Germany, Moldova, UK and Ukraine
- wishing to build new international partnerships and are ready to invest at least 10 hours during 4 weeks in the period between 15.11.2020 and 15.12.2020.
