

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

GOETHE-DECOUVERTE 2021

CATEGORY: DANCE

The “Goethe-Découverte” Concept

The Goethe-Institut is renowned worldwide for its promotion of cultural exchange in the area of arts. Launched in 2015 by Goethe-Institut Kamerun, the “Goethe-Découverte” platform is a space for expression dedicated to artists. It seeks to support young talents in Cameroon, facilitate dialogue between professional artists and cultural journalists, and arouse interest for these young talents amongst producers and publicists. It is open to all performing arts and other art forms: visual arts, dance, music (voice and sound), theatre, word-based performances (spoken word, storytelling, stand-up, etc). This call for applications is aimed at choreographers who have developed and written an original work of dance preferably unpublished that can be presented as a solo or a group***

Selection criteria

For the sake of an open and neutral platform, the winner is chosen by an independent jury of professionals in the arts, culture and related professions. The prize will be awarded on the basis of following criteria:

- Originality, creativity and innovation of the proposed work
- Quality of presentation of the file
- Technical, artistic and professional skills of the applicant
- Relevance of the proposed work's content with regard to the local and/or international context

The Prize

The winner will benefit from the following:

- Personalized coaching by established professionals
- A training workshop in administration, art projects management and communication
- Organisation of a show during the period running from May to December 2021 (communication, technical organisation, logistics, scenography, costumes)**
- A fee of CFA 500.000
- A digital photo album of the show
