

PASCH Alumni Treffen

27. & 28.02.21

Welcome back to the evenings full of fun, reconnections and conversations around physical and mental health care.

27th Feb –
Reconnecting through Games: The game hour is back to unleash the fun and memories galore.
FAQ Session on “The deCOVIDization of humans: how we conquered a pandemic. Again.”
Interaction with Ms. Veronika Taranzinskaja, Project Head, Schools: Partners for the future (PASCH), Goethe-Institut New Delhi

28th Feb –
Mental Health Matters: A reflective workshop to engage in conversations around mental health care.
Magazine by the Alumni: An invitation to reflect on a magazine by the alumni for the young buddies of Goethe Institut.

Facilitated by:
Trishala Kanakia, Yashna Vishwanathan, Raghav Maheshwary
trishalakanakia93@gmail.com | yashna.vish@gmail.com | maheshwary.raghav1997@gmail.com

Programm

27.02.2021

- 4.30 PM – 5.10 PM - Reconnecting through games: the game hour is back to unleash the fun and memories galore
By Trishala Kanakia & Yashna Vishwanathan
- 5.10 PM – 5.40 PM - The deCOVIDization of humans: how we conquered a pandemic. Again.
By Raghav Maheshwary
- 5.40 PM – 6.00 PM - Interactive Session with Ms. Veronika Taranzinskaja
Project Head, Schools: Partners for the future (PASCH), Goethe-Institut New Delhi

28.02.2021

- 4.30 PM – 6.00 PM - Mental Health Matters- a reflective workshop to engage in conversations around mental health care
By Trishala Kanakia
- 6.00 PM – 6.30 PM - Magazine by the Alumni- an invitation to reflect on a magazine by the alumni for the young buddies of Goethe Institut
By Trishala Kanakia & Yashna Vishwanathan

Our Experts

Veronika Taranzinskaja

Project Head, Schools: Partners for the future (PASCH)
Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan New Delhi

Ms. Veronika Taranzinskaja joined as the Project Head - Educational Services and Schools: "Partners for the Future" (PASCH) South Asia) in 2019. She brings along with her many years of experience in the field of language. In 2006 she completed her graduation in German Studies and Politics in Berlin. Apart from that she has done her Master diploma in "Non-Profit Management" in Kaiserslautern in 2013 and her Second State Examination in Berlin. For the past 13 years she has worked as an educator and education manager in Germany, India and Bolivia. She is specialized in the field of Education for Sustainable Development and experienced in Vocational Education.

Raghav Maheshwary

Doctor & PASCH Alumnus

Raghav is a PASCH alumnus from Kolkata. Working as a junior doctor he has been in close contact with affected patients during the Pandemic of 2020. With an interest in languages, cultures and building meaningful relations he is here to throw some light on the pandemic, its effects and life after a year that will not be forgotten anytime soon.

Yashna Vishwanathan

Mental Health Worker

Yashna Vishwanathan is a mental health worker working with disabled children and young people, their families and adults. Her work is informed by narrative practices, intersectional feminism and knowledge-lives of young people.

Trishala Kanakia

Mental Health Therapist & Narrative Practitioner &
PASCH Alumna

Trishala is a mental health practitioner who uses narrative ideas in her therapeutic work with individuals and groups. She hopes to create safe spaces for people to reflect on their preferred identities. Please visit her Instagram blog @iamheretohear to know more or connect with her.