

Hey,

My name is Flavia Rothe and I'm 20 years old. I was born and raised in Berlin. I'm half Italian and half German, so was raised speaking German and Italian. My entire childhood I always played the piano and sang, so I grew up with the biggest dream of doing music someday. In 2015/2016 I went to Miami for six months and did 6 months of High school there to get to know the culture and to learn English. Travelling was always something that I loved to do. I love to travel to foreign places and really get to know the culture. I always try to just adapt to their way of living to soak everything up. After my time in Miami, I came back to Berlin and I graduated from High school. In 2019 I did my Abitur from a gymnasium. Once I was done, I decided that I wanted to take a gap year to travel and to work someplace else that was far away from Berlin. So, I found a job in Language Pantheon in Delhi, where I then worked for 6 months and got to know so many amazing people that are friends for life. I made so many beautiful memories and I'm so extremely grateful for my time there. I wanted to elongate my time in India to travel more and see more places but unfortunately, I had to go back to Berlin because of the pandemic. When coming back I thought it wouldn't take long until I could go back but pretty soon, I realized that I wouldn't be able to go back to India to travel and work for a while, so I started thinking about what I wanted to study. My dream was always to study music, but for a long time, I was scared to take that step because that meant that I was really taking that shot and putting myself out there. Soon I realized that music was the only thing that was going to make me happy in the long run, so I applied to my dream collage in Berlin called BIMM. In the summer of 2020, I got accepted and then started studying songwriting in October 2020. Now I'm finished with my first year of college and started recording music of my own as well as writing music for other people. On my summer break, I would love to work a little to save up money for my travels and record some more music. This was the story of me and of how I got to where I am today.

Kind regards

Flavia
