FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Webshop?

WEBSHOP is an e-commerce platform where you select, book and pay for your courses.

What is the enrolment procedure?

The enrollment for A1 level courses is on first-come-first served basis via WEBSHOP on our website. The course fee is payable at the time of online registration. We accept payment with credit/debit card. By making the online payment automatic acceptance of the terms & conditions of the Goethe-Institut is applicable.

Your payment will be processed by the Goethe-Institut e.V. in Germany. The payment will be made in EURO. Please use a credit/debit card which is enabled for international transactions. The Goethe-Institut cannot refund any processing fee and/or exchange rate differences which might be deducted by the credit/debit card provider during the transaction.

How can I pay for the course?

The registration is to be done via webshop through our website. Minors can not pay for the course. The steps for registration will be available in a PPT on our website.

What are the technical requirements?

For attending the online live sessions, you will need the following:

- Computer/ Laptop/ Tablet/ Smartphone
- Internet connection
- Headphones with mic
- The course can also be done on Mac or Windows 10 platform.

What would be the teaching language?

The medium of instruction will be German. English will be used only if required.

How can I order the books?

The books can be ordered directly from Goyal Publishers (please check the details on our website). The books are not included in the course fee.

How can I have access to Zoom?

The link to Zoom along with all necessary instructions will be shared by the teacher once the course starts.

How does one have access to the online course materials?

Course materials will be available from the day the course starts till two weeks after the course ends. Hereafter the online course room is archived. An extension is not possible.

What would be the duration of each live session?

For level A1 live sessions are of 135 minutes on both Saturday & Sunday. These sessions are held in Zoom.

How can I clear my doubts, if I have any, in between my live sessions? Will the teacher be available throughout the course, and not be restricted to only during live sessions?

Teachers are available through E-Mail to clarify your doubts. Queries can be posted in the students' forum and the teachers will answer them. Assignments need to be submitted within the given time. The teachers will give a feedback after going through the assignments submitted.

Can I book two levels simultaneously?

No. One has to complete each level and then move up to the next level. Only those course participants, who have actively attended 75% of the live sessions are eligible for the next level. Also candidates who have passed the Goethe - Zertifikat examination of previous level, may join the next level. However the certificate should not be more than 6 months old. Alternatively you can join a course based on the result of our online level assessment test.

How are the timings for the online live classes decided?

The classes are held as mentioned on your booking confirmation. An orientation E-Mail will be sent prior to the course start.

Will a certificate be provided on successful completion of the course?

If you complete 70% of the assignments and attend 70% of the live sessions you are eligible for a participation certificate.

How long can one still access the course material to review revise?

The course materials are archived after 2 weeks from the course end. An extension is not possible.

Can I join an online course after doing an offline course from Goethe-Institut?

Yes, you can, provided you submit the participation certificate or the certificate of 'Goethe - Zertifikat 'examination of previous level. However the certificate should not be more than 6 months old.

Can I join an offline course at Goethe-Institut after completion of an online course?

Yes. You will need to have a valid participation certificate of previous level not more than 6 months old and secure 60% in the exam.

Can I appear for the exam after attending the course? How do I register for the same?

Yes, you can appear for the exam after the course. You have to get in touch with your nearest Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan in India and register for the examination separately by paying the examination fee. The international examinations are not conducted online. You have to be physically present at the examination centre.

Will I be considered as an internal or external candidate?

You will be considered as an internal candidate till six months after completion of your course.

I have learnt German from a private institute/teacher/self. Do I have to start from the A1 level again?

If you have prior knowledge of German, you will have to appear for a level evaluation test. This will be conducted online. Registration for the online level assessment test is possible upon a payment of 1.000 INR.

Can I continue learning German after a gap of few months?

Yes, you can. If the gap is longer than 6 months, you will have to appear for an online level assessment test upon the payment of 1.000 INR. This test provides you the current level of your german language proficiency.

How much time do I need to devote for this course?

This varies from individual to individual. However it would be ideal if you can devote on an average 4 - 5 hours every week over and above the class timings.

Whom can I write for further queries?

For further queries please write us at: languagecourses-delhigoethe.de
