HOME FOR DANCE

Schedule of Events

Date	Time	Event	Description
Dec 3	6 pm onwards	The Opening	A one hour curated programme of guided walkthroughs of exhibits by 3 pairs of residency artists, interspersed with live performance interventions. We invite you to kick off the Pickle Factory Community ideas installation
Dec 7	6 pm – 7:30 pm	'Bodies in Structures – Movement, Queerness and Belonging' – an adda	An informal adda led by residency artists –Abanti Bannerjee & Upasana Das– that discusses bodies, its corporeal narrative, memory, ownership, viewership and its preservation
Dec 8	6 pm – 7:30 pm	'How communities can be invited to participate in spaces! Memory and Imagination' - an adda	An informal adda led by residency artists, Paramita Saha, on spaces imagined as cultural spaces or a space for the arts/dance needs the community to come in and become a part of it! What are the ways this could be made to happen?
Dec 10	6 pm	"Home" by Sujoy Prosad Chatterjee followed by a discussion	Screening of 'Home' –a film by Sujoy Prosad Chatterjee– exploring the many facets of home & belonging, portrayed through women sharing their ecstasies, uncertainties, solitude, libido and of course a friendship with oneself, followed by an interactive discussion with dancer & Director, Pickle Factory –Vikram Iyengar
Dec 14	6 pm – 7:30 pm	'The symbiotic relationship between performer & space' - an adda	An informal adda led by Sayantan Maitra & Monami Nandy on how performance spaces can be a safe and plural space
Dec 18	6 pm	The Closing	Closing of the exhibition, with an adda led by project mentor Iftekhar Ahsan (Entrepreneur & Founder Calcutta Walks) and project resource guide Anubha Fatehpuria (actor & architect). Iftekhar and Anubha will focus on the rich architectural and artistic heritage of the city, and the potential to bring them together to create hubs of art and culture

Venue:

First Floor Goethe Institut – Max Muller Bhavan Kolkata

COVID restrictions apply. To help us keep numbers in control, please book your visiting slot

For more details, visit:
www.picklefactory.in/homefordance