

Greetings from Goethe-Institut Bangladesh!

Thank you for your interest in learning German with us!

We are happy to inform you that we are starting the next Intensive Blended Learning course at North South University for the A1 level from 14th June, 2022.

Goethe-Institut will be conducting all classes while keeping social distancing in mind, with the intention of uninterrupted quality teaching. Therefore, the classes may be taken as online live courses for this entire quarter. 4 course participants (selected by NSU) will receive a 50% scholarship. The others can join the course paying the full fee amount.

Here is a description of the online class format:

- During the online sessions, you will work on your computer using the Goethe-Institut's interactive learning platform. The course timings mentioned below are for live sessions and self-learning. With the help of professional multimedia exercises and the latest learning methods, you will practice your reading, writing, listening and speaking comprehension skills in German.
- You will work on individual and group assignments. You can personally interact with other students in the course via chat or in forums.
- The scope and content of the curriculum corresponds to that of our standard classroom courses consisting of 150 teaching units of 45 minutes each for the intensive courses and of 75 teaching units of 45 minutes each for the Extensive courses.
- Our faculty will support you for the entire duration of the course. This faculty will give you new assignments and regular feedback on your progress.
- The course time schedule includes a 45-minute time slot for practice and homework tasks set by the teacher at the end of every class.

Registrations are open!

Enrolments will be taken on a first come first served basis as long as seats are available.

Further instructions will be sent via email.
