P ANCB

Welcome

to “Frequencies. Sharing Feminisms”, an interdisciplinary festival by the Goethe-Institut!

The festival offers a programme of discussions, workshops, performances, participatory formats, readings, music and films. The Goethe-Institut invites participants and visitors from Berlin and abroad to exchange ideas about the diversity of feminist movements and concepts. After a long hiatus, we finally have the opportunity to meet and network in person once again!

The festival team hopes you enjoy it!

At a Glance

Event Languages

The majority of the programme will take place in English or German, with some German and English translation as well as German Sign Language (GSL). Most events at the Pfefferberg Theater will be simultaneously interpreted into German or English. Please refer to the programme for more detailed information on the languages of individual events.

Digital

Selected events in the programme will also be available online. Please refer to the information on the website. The film programme can also be viewed via Goethe-On-Demand (frequenzen.goethe-on-demand.de).

Childcare

Free childcare for children aged 3–10 years will be available at the Pfefferberg on Friday, 20.05. and Saturday, 21.05. from 10:45–19:45. The childcare will be provided by Agentur Kinderzeit. There are a limited number of spaces, so please register in advance and select your desired time slot(s).

Quiet Room

On Friday, 20.05. and Saturday, 21.05. a quiet room will be set up in the ANCB from 11:00–21:00 each day and can be used for relaxation if required.

Registration

Please present your digital ticket to gain admission to the festival. Tickets are free and will be sent to you once you have registered on our website: goethe.de/fre/registration. As general registration for the festival does not include a seat reservation, please try to arrive early.

You need to register separately for the opening event, the discussion “Femicide and Violence against Women” at the ICI Berlin, the workshops, the format “360 Degrees – Challenges and Approaches to a Feminist Foreign Cultural Policy” and childcare.

The performance “I Grew an Alien Inside of Me” by Rima Najdi at the Sophiensæle is a paid event. Tickets can be purchased via the Sophiensæle ticket office.

Accessibility

The festival site and event spaces are wheelchair accessible, some programme events will be translated into German Sign Language (GSL), and escort assistance will be available for blind visitors if required. In addition, an awareness team will be on site to ensure the well-being of all visitors. For more information, please contact our information desk or visit our website at www.goethe.de/fre/accessibility.

Covid-19 Protective Measures

To protect yourself and others from infection, we recommend wearing an FFP2 mask in all indoor spaces. Please follow any guidelines in the individual venues.
