

Courses for children and teens at the Goethe-Institut in Germany and Austria

Check list for preparing for your journey

Important documents	Notes
Valid passport Visa Flight ticket (e-ticket) Copy of your child's international vaccination pass including a valid PCR-test (48 hours and personalized) or antigen test (48 hours and personalized)
Important for your child's health
Any medication that your child takes regularly, including: Original package with patient information leaflet, in German or English Physician's instructions on dosage
What clothes should my child take with them?
Underwear Socks T-shirts (short- and long-sleeved) 3 pairs of jeans 3 pairs of shorts or skirts 1 jacket 2 pairs of pyjamas / sleepshirts 1 tracksuit
Since summers in Germany/Austria can also be cool and rainy, please pack a variety of suitable clothes for cool and/or rainy days: Rain gear (rain jacket/umbrella, sturdy shoes, and quick-drying pants, e.g. light sports pants) At least 2 warm pullovers or sweatshirts Scarf for warm days: Sun hat Sunscreen Sunglasses Sleeveless t-shirts / tons

Swimsuit / bathing trunks
A very important topic: footwear . Since the weather can vary considerably, our advice is to bring the following:
Sandals 1 pair of sturdy shoes that can bear getting dirty and wet 1 pair of low shoes Slippers / house shoes Indoor sports shoes with light-coloured soles Optional: rubber boots if necessary (particularly important for children's courses) Optional: bathing shoes
Toiletries (soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, cream, shower gel, shampoo, etc.) 2 towels, in case your child goes swimming (the boarding school provides towels for the showers) 1 notebook or notepad for lessons Pens and pencils Dictionary One passport photo
Laundry bag for dirty washing
Still some space left in the suitcase? Then we'd also recommend the following:
Still some space left in the suitcase? Then we'd Still some space left in the suitcase? Then we'd also recommend the following: Sports gear for your child's favorite sport Camera Alarm clock Pocket torch Photos of family and friends
Still some space left in the suitcase? Then we'd also recommend the following: Sports gear for your child's favorite sport Camera Alarm clock Pocket torch Photos of family and friends One cuddly toy Please don't forget: Put a name tag on your

Your Young Learners' Course Team Goethe Institutes in Germany