

Goethe-Institut Philippinen Newsletter – The Berlinale Short Films 2014

Dear friends of the Goethe-Institut,

Welcome to our newsletter!

We want to keep you up to date with what is happening around your Goethe-Institut, along with current information about German culture and activities in the Philippines.

The Berlinale Short Films Tour the Philippines!

Date and Time: November 15 – December 6, 2014

Venue: Nationwide (details below)

The Goethe-Institut in partnership with the Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP) is bringing the short film section of the Berlinale 2014 to the Philippines!

As part of the 64th annual Berlin International Film Festival, ten short films – especially curated for Southeast Asia – will be shown in two programs free of charge in four cities across the archipelago. The opening ceremony will be held at the FDCP Cinematheque in Baguio City on Saturday, November 15, at 2:30 PM.

Berlinale Shorts comprises international short films that demonstrate an innovative approach to film making. The films deal with current topics, ranging from surreal to real, from marvelous to cruel. They discuss a world that changes dramatically and endangers nature. A highlight of the screening will be Three Stones for Jean Genet, a seven-minute production by Germany's Frieder Schlaich, which depicts his friendship with the singer-songwriter Patti Smith.

For more information on the dates and venues, see the schedule below:

FDCP Cinematheque Baguio | November 15, 2014

Opening Program at 2:30 PM | Screenings at 3:30 PM & 4:45 PM
Casa Vallejo, Upper Session Road, Baguio City

FDCP Cinematheque Iloilo | November 21, 2014 | 1:30 PM & 3:30 PM

B&C Building, Solis Street Cor. Iznart Street, Iloilo City

FDCP Cinematheque Davao | November 29, 2014 | 1:30 PM & 3:30 PM

Palma Gil Street, Davao City

FDCP Cinematheque Zamboanga | December 6, 2014 | 1:30 PM & 3:30 PM

Veterans Street Cor. Legionaire Street, Zamboanga City

Admission to all screenings will be free of charge.
All films will be shown with English subtitles!

For more information on the films, please visit our website: Berlinale Shorts.

For inquiries, please send an e-mail to program@manila.goethe.org.

Everybody is sincerely invited!
See you there!