

Goethe-Institut Cyprus:

General Terms and Conditions-Exams

1. The Examination Guidelines and implementation rules of the Goethe-Institut apply (www.goethe.de/pruefungen)

1.1. All exams must be taken as a whole (Exception: Goethe-Certificates B1, B2 and C2: GDS) unless it is a partial revision (A2 or C1). Starting from January 2024, the C1 exam will be in modules and does not have to be taken as one exam. The examinees are obligated to provide proof of identity before the written and oral exam.

1.2. The candidate retains the right to withdraw from the exam. In such cases as well as in the event of the exclusion of a candidate from the exam (cf. Exam Guidelines Art. 12), the examination fees are nonrefundable.

1.3. If the exam candidate does not participate in the written or oral exam or arrives at the examination room late, he or she may no longer participate in the exam. The examination fees are nonrefundable. No result is published.

1.4. If an exam candidate does not start the exam or is interrupted due to ill health, the Examination Centre must be notified within two working days and a medical certificate must be produced. The examination fees are transferred to the next examination date or the following one respectively, subject to an administration fee of 20%.

1.5. For exam participants with specific needs, it is possible to take the exam under certain conditions, upon request. Please contact the Examination Centre at least 4 weeks before the exam date to ensure that the exam can be administered according to the examinees needs.

1.6. The examination center can issue a replacement certificate if a certificate has been lost. There is a charge for issuing the replacement certificate. The overall results are archived for 10 years. After these 10 years, it is no longer possible to issue a replacement certificate. The TestDaF Institute is responsible for TestDaF certificates.

1.7. The personal data of exam participants is not passed on to third parties.
