LANGUAGE LEVELS ACCORDING TO COMMON EUROPEAN FRAMEWORK OF REFERENCE FOR LANGUAGES

C2

Can effortlessly understand practically everything which he/she reads or hears. Can summarize information from various written and spoken sources, logically recounting the reasons and explanations. Can express him/herself spontaneously with high fluency and precision and also make finer nuances of meaning clear in more complex topics.

C1

Can understand a wide range of challenging, longer texts and also grasp implicit meanings. Can express him/herself spontaneously and fluently without having to search for words frequently and noticeably. Can use the language effectively and flexibly in his/her social and professional life or in training and studies. Can make clear, structured and detailed statements on complex topics and apply various means of text association appropriately in the process.

B2

Can understand the main contents of complex texts on concrete and abstract topics; also understands specialized discussions in his/her own primary area of specialization. Can communicate so spontaneously and fluently that a normal conversation with native speakers is easily possible without a great deal of effort on either side. Can express him/herself on a wide range of topics in a clear and detailed manner, explain his/her position on a current issue and indicate the benefits and drawbacks of various options.

B1

Can understand the main points when clear, standard language is used and the focus is on familiar topics associated with work, school, leisure time, etc. Can deal with most situations typically encountered when travelling in the language region. Can express him/herself simply and coherently regarding familiar topics and areas of personal interest. Can report on experiences and events, describe dreams, hopes and goals as well as make short statements to justify or explain his/her own views and plans.

A2

Can understand sentences and commonly used expressions associated with topics directly related to his/her direct circumstances (e.g. personal information or information about his/her family, shopping, work, immediate surroundings). Can make him/herself understood in simple, routine situations dealing with a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and common topics. Can describe his/her background and education, immediate surroundings and other things associated with immediate needs in a simple way.

A1

Can understand and use familiar, everyday expressions and very simple sentences, which relate to the satisfying of concrete needs. Can introduce him/herself and others as well as ask others about themselves - e.g. where they live, who they know and what they own - and can respond to questions of this nature. Can communicate in a simple manner if the person they are speaking to speaks slowly and clearly and is willing to help.

CULTURE PROGRAMS

The Goethe-Institut closely cooperates with partner cultural institutions in Slovakia. It brings German culture to Slovakia and promotes cultural exchange and integration of young Slovak cultural scene into European networks. In its building in Bratislava it organizes literary readings, exhibitions, screenings of German films and discussions that are open to the public free of charge.

LIBRARY

The library contains 12,000 books in German and Slovak, 23,000 media in our Onleihe digital library, latest issues of German newspapers and magazines, CDs and DVDs, audiobooks and more than a hundred board games. The Goethe-Institut operates a library of things with 50 items from the areas Nature, DIY, Experiment and Party.

EDUCATIONAL COOPERATION

Goethe-Institut supports teachers of German as a foreign language by providing seminars and trainings in the areas of didactics, methodics and German culture – as distance learning, in Germany and in Slovakia. It creates projects for schools such as I want to learn (teach) German, Experimenting in German and German Digital Children's University.

CAFÉ DIFFERENT

A place where you can find a selection of coffee from Slovak and foreign roasteries, delicious sweet desserts and cozy quiet atmosphere for work or meeting with friends. In the summer months you can also enjoy our green terrace. We look forward to welcoming you.
