Über die Produzent*innen des MED Futures

Deena Abdelwahed (TU)

Deena Abdelwahed is a Tunisian producer and DJ. After establishing herself in the music scene of Tunis, she moved to France. She pursues innovation in dance music, fusing electronic and local sounds in an exciting, modern way.

Muqata'a (PS)

Muqata'a is an electronic musician and MC based in Ramallah, Palestine. He creates sounds using sampled material, field recordings, and electronic devices, with the results range between harsh beats, abstract tones, and glitch.

Bill Kouligas (GR)

Bill Kouligas is the founder of PAN, one of the most exciting and critically acclaimed labels for experimental and electronic music that, in almost 10 years of activity, has led to the emergence of artists like Lee Gamble, M.E.S.H. and Yves Tumor, sharing their futuristic vision.

Jay Glass Dubs (GR)

One of the leading lights of experimental dub electronics and core member of the Bokeh Versions squad, Dimitris Papadatos (b.1981,USA) aka Jay Glass Dubs, is a composer, musician and sound artist living and working between Nicosia and Athens.

Vazy Julie (Marseille)

Vazy Julie is a DJ and leading member of Metaphore Collectif. She has done podcasts for LYL Radio and Rinse, forging a signature sound that blends UK breaks, trap, industrial techno and bass music.

Liliane Chlela (Toronto)

Liliane Chlela has been pushing forward the boundaries of Electronic Music in Lebanon and the Middle East for over a decade both as a solo artist and via her various local and international collective projects. She constructs a characteristic sound both as a producer, DJ and live performer, exploring the connections between improvisation and sound treatment

STILL (IT)

Milan artist and musician STILL (Simone Trabucchi)'s practice is defined by a unique, nomadic approach. He explores the unearthing of the histories that connect his hometown of Vernasca to Ethiopia and Jamaica, tying these research threads together, further evolving their sonic and linguistic aspects.
