“Remembering the divide through film”

The Goethe-Institut Philippinen and the Czech Embassy Manila in partnership with the UP Film Institute invite you to the Iron Curtain Film Festival happening this August 22-24, 2019, at the Videotheque, UPFI Film Center.

The Iron Curtain Film Festival was specially organized to celebrate the revolution that stunned the world with cinema for the 30th anniversary of the Velvet Revolution and Fall of the Berlin Wall.

A total of three (3) films from the Czech Republic and two (2) films from Germany will be screened to give the viewers insight about the events that happened during the political divide that gave rise to the imaginary boundary in Europe known as the „Iron Curtain“.

Aside from the film screening, there will also be a Panel Discussion on Communism to be held on August 22, 2019, 4pm, at the UPFI Film Center.

Admission to the festival is free with limited seating (58 seats) and open to the public on a first come, first served basis. For more information, visit goethe.de/manila.
