

The Goethe-Institut runs a new film series:
A Visual Tour Through German Literature

Wednesday Movie Nights at the Goethe-Institut Philippinen Library

January 7 – March 4, 2015

The Goethe-Institut starts the New Year with a new film series: A Visual Tour Through German Literature features various film adaptations of various German literary works from the classics to German fairytales to contemporary literature. Many great exponents of German literature, from Johann Wolfgang von Goethe to Erich Kaestner to Daniel Kehlmann, are represented in the film adaptations of our new film series. Just like the novels, many of these adaptations are already highly acclaimed in the German cultural scene.

The Wednesday Movie Nights are a permanent feature of the program work of the Goethe-Institut Philippinen. The screenings feature a wide range of German movies of various themes and issues. Admission is free and the film showings are open to public. It is part of the offer to our German learning students, as well.

The screenings will take place every Wednesday evening at 6:00 PM at the Goethe-Institut Philippinen Library.
