

Important Notice for Offline Courses:

1. Force majeure

The liability of the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan and its staff shall be limited to intent and gross negligence. The Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan will have no liability for cancellation of its services due to force majeure (e.g. unrest, act of war or terrorism, natural calamities, epidemics, pandemics and all other circumstances beyond the control of the contractual parties).

Should such cases of extraordinary circumstances or events occur or should there be a change in the existing circumstances or events, caused by factors that are beyond the sphere of influence of the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan, the Institute shall reserve the right to make changes in the ongoing course structure (e.g. in terms of time, methodology or format). Should the circumstances not allow the above-mentioned changes, in that case the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan shall cancel the course without any alternative offer and financial compensation.

- The minimum number of candidates to start the course is 10. In case of insufficient candidates, the course will be cancelled and the candidates can claim 100% refund of their course fees or a transfer to any other course offered by Goethe-Institut Mumbai.
- The candidates attending the offline courses at Goethe-Institut Mumbai will have to be double vaccinated (final dose taken at least 14 days before their visit).
The final vaccination certificate has to be shown while entering the Goethe-Institut Mumbai premises.
- We take our students' and staff's safety very seriously.
It is MANDATORY to wear a mask properly (nose AND mouth fully covered) & to follow all safety protocols (temperature check, social distancing etc.) for the ENTIRE duration of your visit. Failure to comply with these rules will result in the visitor being expelled from our premises immediately. No services will be offered to any such visitors.
- In an unfortunate event of contracting COVID-19, the candidates have to immediately inform their respective teacher. In case any candidate develops any symptoms like fever, cold, cough, the candidate should abstain from attending the offline course till the candidate recovers from the same.
- General Terms & Conditions of Goethe-Institut Mumbai are applicable.
