1. The objective and legal foundation for data processing

Projects are carried out by the Goethe-Institut within the parameters of the national funding guidelines for AMIF. Goethe-Institut handles personal data of the target group's members as part of the planning and coordination of projects (such as when registering for events). Moreover, Goethe-Institut is required to notify any leak of personal data since it manages and accounts for the AMIF funding that have been issued. Both Article 6 Paragraph 1 B) and Article 6 Paragraph 1 F) of the GDPR serve as the processing's legal foundations. The Goethe-Institut will contact participants to evaluate project measures and provide updates on future projects, Communication via email. Art. 6 para. 1 f) GDPR serves as the legal basis.
