

The course gives you free access to the Goethe-Institute learning platform. Sometimes you are not able to attend classes - due to illness, a business trip or other important reasons. On the learning platform you can check what happened in the last class and find out what material you need to prepare for the next time. The class reports are updated after each lesson. With our additional service you can stay up to date.

1. If you are not yet registered on my.goethe.de, you should ...
