

11.09.2025

Cancellation of Live Talk Event with Sandra Hüller on October 5

We regret to inform you that the live talk event with Sandra Hüller, originally scheduled for October 5 as a part of the film series Sandra Hüller – The Art of Ambivalence, has been cancelled. Due to unforeseen and urgent work obligations, Sandra Hüller has had to adjust the schedule of her stay in Japan.

The Goethe-Institut Tokyo and German Films, co-organizers of the film series, made every effort to find an alternative date for her live appearance in collaboration with Sandra Hüller's agency. Unfortunately, it was not possible to reschedule.

We sincerely apologize to all fans in Japan who were looking forward to Sandra Hüller's first live appearance in Tokyo. We deeply regret if this situation has caused any disappointment.

We are currently preparing an alternative event to replace the special talk by Sandra Hüller on October 5. Details will be announced as soon as they are finalized. We are committed to creating a program that highlights Sandra Hüller's contribution to portraying deep, multi-faceted female characters in contemporary cinema.

We remain committed to fostering exchange between German and Japanese film cultures and hope to welcome Sandra Hüller to Japan at another opportunity in the future.

Melanie Bono

Director
Goethe-Institut Tokyo

Simone Baumann

Managing Director
German Films