OPEN CALL

HERITAGE NARRATIVES IN SOUTHERN ARABIA

Collaborative Workshops for Artists Based in Saudi Arabia

The Goethe-Institut invites artists based in Saudi Arabia to apply for Heritage Narratives in Southern Arabia, a collaborative workshop series taking place in Aseer from 15 October to 1 November 2026.

The two-week programme will bring together Berlin-based graphic designer and typographer Verena Gerlach and a group of artists working across different artistic and creative disciplines.

Participants are invited to explore and share their own stories and the stories of their communities while engaging with the cultural and craft heritage of Aseer. The programme aims to contribute to the preservation of traditional crafts, encourage cultural exchange and support the transmission of cultural knowledge to younger generations.

Through workshops, training sessions and collaborative artistic production, participants will exchange knowledge about their backgrounds, practices and local traditions.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Selected artworks: Include 10–12 of your best and most recent works that are relevant to the programme.
- Professional documentation: Photograph or scan your work in bright, even and preferably natural light.
- Artwork information: Each work should include its title, year, medium and dimensions.
- Format: Submit the portfolio as a PDF.
- Narrative: Structure the presentation with a clear beginning, middle and end that communicates a coherent story.
- Artistic process: Shortlisted applicants may be invited to an online meeting to discuss their artistic intentions, techniques and how they addressed challenges during the development of their work.

APPLY NOW!

WITH VERENA GERLACH

Shortly after graduating in 1998 at Kunsthochschule Berlin Weissensee Verena Gerlach founded her own studio for graphic design, type design and typography in Berlin. Since then, she also art-directed several video clips and worked on the typographic production for international, contemporary artists. Her current focus is on book design, everything type and typography related and lecturing on those topics.
