OUR LEARNING CONCEPT

Goal-oriented, clearly structured, varied

Sprache. Kultur. Deutschland.

The teaching language is German right from the first lesson.

Every course also includes access to our online learning platform, where you can:

- find lesson documentation
- access material for self-study
- get information about events at the Goethe-Institut India

General Terms & Conditions
Webshop / Language Courses

COURSE FEE AND PAYMENT

The course fee is due at the time of registration. Once paid, course fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. For bookings made via the website, the General Terms and Conditions of the Webshop apply.

The amount of the course fee is clearly displayed in the Webshop before and during the booking process. It includes the legally mandated 18% GST.

The course fee does not include the cost of the textbook, unless explicitly stated otherwise. The textbook must be purchased separately. The Goethe-Zertifikat exam is also not part of the course and is not included in the course fee.

Payment is made directly in the Webshop using the payment methods specified there.

LEVEL ASSESSMENT TEST

Individuals who have already learned German independently or with another provider, or whose German course or exam at the Goethe-Institut was more than 6 months ago, must take a level assessment test.

The level assessment test is not an official language certificate but rather provides an overview of your language skills. Based on the test results, a course level recommendation will be made.

The test can be taken online from home and is not supervised. It does not meet the strict examination conditions of the Goethe-Zertifikat and is therefore intended only as a guide.

To ensure realistic results and an accurate course level recommendation, we strongly encourage you to take the test seriously, independently and without any aids.

The level assessment test is free of charge and can be booked here: book Level Assessment Test.

The course level recommendation will be sent shortly after completing the test to the email address provided during registration.

TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

The courses offered by the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan are generally open to all interested individuals.

Standard courses are adult courses and are intended for individuals who are at least 17 years old.

For teenagers and young learners, the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan offers dedicated courses. These are clearly marked as such. The minimum and maximum age requirements for these courses are specified in the course description.

Some courses can only be booked with prior or specialized knowledge. These prerequisites, as well as the methods for providing proof of them, are outlined in the course description.

We reserve the right to contact individuals who do not match the target group of a course and, if necessary, deny admission to the course. In all such cases, we strive to offer suitable alternative options that match the target group.

WITHDRAWAL

For all bookings made via the Webshop, the General Terms and Conditions of the Goethe-Institut e.V. apply, which are sent along with the booking confirmation.

If enrollment is done through our registration office, the following rules apply:

For withdrawals up to 4 weeks before the course begins, 10% of the course fee will be retained as an administrative charge.

For withdrawals between 4 weeks and 1 week before the course begins, the administrative fee is 20% of the course fee.

For withdrawals between 1 week and 1 day before the course begins, the administrative fee is 30% of the course fee.

No refunds are possible after the course has started. All withdrawal requests must be submitted in writing.

CLASS SIZE

The maximum number of participants is 22 in regular courses and 18 in Blended Learning courses.

COURSE CANCELLATION BY THE GOETHE-INSTITUT

If a course does not reach the minimum number of participants, the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan reserves the right to cancel the course. In such cases, registered participants will be contacted, and alternative course dates will be offered. If no alternative dates are available or suitable, the paid course fee will be refunded.

The same applies to other reasons that may force the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan to cancel a course before it begins.

SWITCH TO ONLINE LIVE CLASSES

The Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan reserves the right to switch in-person or hybrid classes to online live instruction at short notice if required by official directives or due to safety concerns for participants and staff.

On the premises, including inside the buildings, respectful, considerate, and non-violent (both physical and verbal) behaviour is expected. Consideration also includes being mindful of the diverse needs of our visitors. Loud conversations and music are not permitted outside of designated activities.

If someone's behaviour endangers the safety of others on the premises or causes disturbances—and this behaviour continues despite warnings from staff—the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan reserves the right to issue a ban from the premises and ask the individual to leave.

If a person is asked to leave or is banned from the premises, there is no entitlement to compensation for missed services.

LIABILITY OF THE GOETHE-INSTITUT

The liability of the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan and its staff is limited to cases of negligence. The institute is not liable for service disruptions caused by force majeure, such as civil unrest, war or terrorist conflicts, natural disasters, epidemics, etc., which are beyond the control of the contracting parties.

The Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan will make every effort to offer alternative arrangements for such disruptions, where circumstances allow. These may include rescheduled classes or changes in venue. If such alternatives cannot be provided, the course will be cancelled without replacement or financial compensation.
