

National Conference for Teachers of German 2026

Friday, 16 October

Time
08:30-09:00	Registration, tea/coffee and exhibitor tables
09:00-10:30	Why Language Matters and What That Means for Our Teaching An interactive opening session Why do people learn languages? Which experiences stay with them? And what is the value of language education today? In this interactive opening session, we introduce the central themes of the conference, connect them to the program, and engage in conversation with members of our network. Matthias Jakuš, Head of Language, Goethe-Institut Australia Jelena Herster, Head of Educational Services, Goethe-Institut Australia
10:30-11:00	Morning Tea
11:00 -12:30	Making Multilingualism Visible Reflecting on identity in the German classroom	Positive Language Pedagogy Creating learning spaces where confidence can grow	Courage over Perfection How we create learning environments in which language emerges naturally	Inspiring Interest Through Experience How we spark curiosity for German
12:30-13:15	Lunch and exhibitor tables

13:15-13:45	Afternoon Opening Session Matthias Jakuš, Head of Language, Goethe-Institut Australia Jelena Herster, Head of Educational Services, Goethe-Institut Australia
13:45-14:45 Poster Presentations	Poster Forum Projects, ideas and experiences from German language teaching
14:45-15:15	Afternoon Tea and exhibitor tables
15:15-16:45 Workshops	Positive Language Pedagogy Creating learning spaces where confidence can grow	Shaping the World Through Language How classroom tasks can become authentic projects	Language Creates Belonging Reflecting on inclusive language use in the German classroom	When Language Can Make a Difference Fostering learner agency and self-efficacy in German language teaching
17:00-18:00 Keynote	The Transformative Power of Multilingualism Prof Ingrid Piller Distinguished Professor of Applied Linguistics at Macquarie University, Sydney
18:00-19:30	Happy Hour

Saturday, 17 October

Time
8:30-9:00	Registration
9:00-09:15	Welcome and Opening of Day 2 Matthias Jakuš, Head of Language, Goethe-Institut Australia Jelena Herster, Head of Educational Services, Goethe-Institut Australia
09:15-10.45 Workshops	Practice Lab for Secondary Teachers „Wo ist Lotte“ An interactive simulation for the German classroom.	Practice Lab for Primary Teachers Discover German with Wuschel Ideas and teaching materials for the primary classroom
10:45-11:15	Morning Tea
11:15-12:30	Closing Plenary: From Network to Movement Matthias Jakuš, Jelena Herster and the NATG Netzwerk
13:00	Opening of the German Cultural Day	