

PRESS RELEASE

The Goethe-Institut runs a new film series: Welcome to Germany?

April 29 to June 17, 2015

The Wednesday Movie Nights are a permanent feature of the program work of the Goethe-Institut Philippinen. The screenings feature a wide range of German movies of various themes and issues. Admission is always free and the film showings are open to everybody. The movies are shown in German with English subtitles.

The German society lives off immigration. Germany has been considered an immigration country since the late 1950s. After arriving in Germany, many of the immigrants soon realize that their new country is not the paradise they had imagined. The culture shock and the different lifestyle pose a great challenge for almost every immigrant coming to Germany.

Our latest film series "Welcome to Germany?" tries to shed light on these problems and tries to find out, if Germany really is a paradise for immigrants and to what extent. The movies also talk about the many facets of integration and, among other things, how people can overcome cultural differences.

The screenings will take place every Wednesday evening at 6:00 PM at the Library of Goethe-Institut Philippinen. The schedule is as follows:

- April 29, 2015 Soul Kitchen
- May 06, 2015 Sascha (Sasha)
- May 13, 2015 Die Fremde (When we leave)
- May 20, 2015 Katzelmacher
- May 27, 2015 Alles auf Zucker (Go for Zucker)
- June 03, 2015 Die Kümmeltürkin geht (Melek leaves)
- June 10, 2015 Gegen die Wand (Head on)
- June 17, 2015 Jazz in Love
