ARTS TALK

EUNIC and Townhouse Gallery present Talks on European Arts, Events and Festivals at Rawabet Space, Downtown Cairo

The European Union National Institutes for Culture (EUNIC) together with Townhouse Gallery (www.thetownhousegallery.com) present a series of talks and presentations on festivals and arts events in Europe.

The talks will be given by festival directors and curators from several European countries. Thus the events will provide the chance to meet and for exchange between members of the Cairo art scene and representatives of important art events in Europe.

10 European cultural institutes and embassies have joined together in the EUNIC Egypt Cluster to collaborate on common projects and initiatives in order to present the variety and diversity of culture in Europe.
