Borrowing from the library

Visitors can take out a maximum of 8 items at a time of which no more than 3 may be DVDs due to high demand. DVDs can be borrowed for 3 weeks, with no renewals possible. All other items can be borrowed for 3 weeks, and may be renewed for a further 3 weeks if the item has not been reserved. After this period, items may only be renewed in exceptional cases. Neither reference works (marked with red dots), nor newspapers, or the most recent issue of any journal/magazine may be borrowed. Items which are on loan to another reader may be reserved at the info desk in the library. However, it is not possible to pre-book items for a particular date. We will inform you when the reserved item has been returned to the library. Reserved items will be held for one week.

Overdue, lost and damaged items

If an item is not returned by the due date, a fine will be levied at the rate of R5 per item per week. Readers are required to handle all library materials with care, and to pay particular attention to adequate packaging if returning items by post. The reader is responsible for any loss or damage.

Copyright

Library users are required to respect the South-African copyright regulations concerning usage of all library material.

Computers and Internet-access

Computers are available for access to the Internet, the GENIOS database (access to German newspapers and magazine articles) and the library catalogue. Please note that an active library membership is required to use the computers and internet. Visits to websites which are of a violent or pornographic nature are explicitly prohibited.

Photocopier / Printer

There is a photocopier available to copy library material and a printer that is connected to the computers. The charges are R 1,00 for an A3 copy and R 0,50 for an A4 copy as well as printouts.

Group visits

Groups are requested to contact the library before their visit. We can arrange a tour of the library if required.

We ask for your understanding

Eating, drinking and smoking are not permitted in the library. Please switch your mobile phones to silent.
