Međunarodna interdisciplinarna konferencija
STANJE ISTRAŽIVANJA HOLOKAUSTA U JUGOISTOČNOJ EVROPI: PROBLEMI, PREPREKE I PERSPEKTIVE

27.-29. oktobar / listopad 2006. - Hotel Saraj, Sarajevo

Dear friends,
First of all, welcome to Sarajevo and to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The reason you are here is this conference, which the Goethe Institute and the Jewish Community of Bosnia and Herzegovina have organized to shed light on the state of Holocaust Studies in southeastern Europe.

Although the Holocaust occurred more than sixty years ago, we think that this topic deserves particular attention, especially since similar crime occurred again in this region at the end of the 20th century. While the recent victims were not Jewish, this does not minimize the atrocities or make them less evil.

In the last few years, more precisely since the Stockholm forum in 2000, conferences in Vienna, Berlin, Brussels, Cordoba, and elsewhere have explored questions of the Holocaust and anti-Semitism from different perspectives. Even though we have participated in all those conferences, these questions remain unanswered for our region.

When the General Assembly of the United Nations decided UNANIMOUSLY in 2005 to recognize a day to remember the Holocaust in the member countries – which naturally included Bosnia and Herzegovina – we decided that the time had come to address this theme in our country, as well as in the entire region of southeastern Europe (or in the jargon of contemporary politicians – the “countries of the western Balkans”).

The interesting topics, the intriguing papers, and the exceptionally recognized participants guarantee the success of this international interdisciplinary meeting that will, hopefully, also result in publishing a book of the papers and discussions.

For the success of this conference the credit goes to all of you - the participants, whereas the blame for all the errors falls on us - the organizers. We hope that there are not going to be many and that you will forgive us for any that arise, so one more time, I wish you all a pleasant stay in Sarajevo and a successful participation in the conference.

Jakob Finci
The President of the Jewish Community of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Dragi prijatelji,

Na prvom mjestu – dobro došli u Sarajevo i u Bosnu i Hercegovinu.

Razlog Vašeg dolaska je ova konferencija, konferencija koju Goethe Institut i Jevrejska zajednica Bosne i Hercegovine organizuju da bi se bolje osvijetlilo stanje istraživanja Holokausta u jugoistočnoj Evropi.

Naime, mada je od Holokausta prošlo preko 60 godina, mislimo da ova tema zaslužuje izuzetnu pažnju, jer se upravo na ovim prostorima ponovio sličan zločin na kraju XX vijeka, čije žrtve nisu bili Jevreji, ali to zločin ne čini ni na koji način manjim i bezazlenijim.

U posljednjih par godina, tačnije od Štokholmskog foruma 2000 godine, preko konferencija u Beču, Berlinu, Briselu i Cordobi problem Holokausta i anti-Semitizma je osvijetljen sa raznih strana, ali se na našem području, mada smo učestvovali u svim tim skupovima, nije jače osjetio.

Kada je 2005. Generalna skupština Ujedinjenih nacija donijela JEDNOGLASNO odluku o obilježavanju dana sjećanja na Holokaust u zemljama članicama – naravno uključujući Bosnu i Hercegovinu, zaključili smo da je došlo vrijeme da se ova tema detaljnije obradi i u našoj zemlji, te cijelom regionu jugoistočne Evrope, ili kako se to danas u političkom žargonu naziva “zemljama zapadnog Balkana”.

Interesantne teme, intrigantni referati, izuzetno priznati učesnici, garancija su uspjeha ovog skupa, koji će nadam se, rezultirati i objavljivanjem knjige referata i diskusija ove međunarodne interdisciplinarne konferencije.

Za uspjeh konferencije zaslužni ste svi vi – njeni učesnici, a za sve greške mi – njeni organizatori. Nadamo se da ih neće biti puno i da ćete nam oprostiti, te Vam još jednom svima zajedno i svakome pojedinačno želim ugodan boravak u Sarajevu i uspješan rad.

BIOGRAFIJE

NENAD ANTONIJEVIĆ is a postgraduate student at the Department of History, University of Belgrade, currently working in the Museum of Genocide Victims. He participated in collecting testimonies of Holocaust survivors from former Yugoslavia for the SHOAH Foundation, Los Angeles. He has published 11 articles in academic journals, as well as a collection of archival records and introductory study entitled Albanian Crimes Against Serbs in the Kosovo and Metohija during the Second World War. In addition, he has participated in several scholarly meetings (i.e. dialogues between Croatian and Serbian historians and the Symposium The Holocaust in Nazi Occupied Yugoslavia at Yad Vashem).

GABY BABIĆ studied at the University of Frankfurt/Main and at the Paris VIII. She holds an M.A. in Theatre, Film and Media Studies, Political Science and German Literature. She wrote her M.A. thesis about Siegfried Kracauer's Theorie of History and Film. Since 2005 she has worked at the Goethe-Institute in Sarajevo.

MILAN BALABAN is a graduate student at the Department of History, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Banja Luka. His main fields of study are Ottoman history and modern history (post World War II). He has participated in several international conferences including Historical Myths on the ex-Yugoslavian Territories, in Dubrovnik (September 2004) and Sarajevo (May 2005) and a conference on intercultural conflict in Tallinn, Estonia (September 2005).

EMILY G. BALIĆ is a Ph.D. Candidate in East European History at Stanford University. Currently, she is also a Research Fellow at the Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs, part of Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government. She is writing a dissertation on Sarajevo in the Second World War.

NENAD ANTONIJEVIĆ student je postdiplomskih studija na Odsjeku za istoriju Univerziteta u Beogradu i trenutno radi u Muzeju žrtava genocida. Bio je učesnik u projektu sakupljanja svjedočenja preživjelih žrtava holokausta u bivšoj Jugoslaviji u okviru SHOAH fondacije, Los Angeles. Autor je 11 članaka objavljenih u naučnim časopisima i objavio je zbirku arhivskih dokumenata sa uvodnom studijom sa nazivom Albanski zločin u italijskoj okupacionoj zoni na Kosovu i Metohiji 1941-1943. Također je učestvovao na nekoliko naučnih skupova (Dijalog između hrvatskih i srpskih historičara, simpozijumu Holokaust u nacistički okupiranoj Jugoslaviji i drugim).

GABY BABIĆ studirala je na Univerzitetu u Frankfurtu (Main) i na Univerzitetu Paris VIII. Magistrirala je nauke o teatru, filmu i medijima, političke nauke i njemačku književnost. Magistarski rad je pisala o povjesnoj i filmskoj teoriji Siegfrieda Kracauera. Od 2005. radi u Goethe-Institutu u Sarajevu.

MILAN BALABAN student je osnovnih studija na Odsjeku za historiju Filozofskog fakulteta Univerziteta u Banja Luci. Glavno težište njegovih studija je Otomanska historija i moderna svjetska historija nakon Drugog svjetskog rata. Učestvovao je na brojnim međunarodnim konferencijama: Historijski mitovi na prostorima bivše Jugoslavije, održane u Dubrovniku (septembar 2004.) i Sarajevu (maj 2005.) i na konferenciji o međukulturalnom konfliktu, održanoj u Talinu u Estoniji (septembar 2005.).

EMILY G. BALIĆ je doktorantkinja istočnoevropske historije na Univerzitetu Stanford. Trenutno je research fellow na Belfer centru za nauke i međunarodne odnose koji je dio Kennedy škole upravljanja Univerziteta Harvard. Balić piše disertaciju o Sarajevu u Drugom svjetskom ratu.

NATALIJA BAŠIĆ worked at the Institute for Social Studies in Hamburg during the 1990s. In 2002-2005 she was a research fellow at the Institute for East European Studies at the Free University of Berlin and research director South Eastern Europe (Serbia/Croatia) for the research group Traditions of Historical Consciousness, funded by the Volkswagen Foundation. Her main interests include historical consciousness, identity processes and political violence, as well as specific aspects of Yugoslav and post-socialistic history using qualitative approaches. At this time, Bašić is preparing a comparative analysis on traditions of historical consciousness. She is conducting research in Germany and Switzerland on war memories in so-called “migrant communities.” She is also conducting interviews on the impact of the wars in former Yugoslavia on political orientations of ex-Yugoslavian migrants and refugees. She is the author of Krieg als Abenteuer. Feindbilder und Gewalt aus der Perspektive ex-jugoslawischer Soldaten and numerous articles.

JANJA BEČ-NEUMANN is a professor of sociology with a specialty in war crimes, genocide and memory. She holds a B.A. from the University of Belgrade and a Ph.D. in sociology from the University of Zagreb. She has taught at universities in Hamburg, Novi Sad, Dubrovnik, Sarajevo and Bologna, and has published a number of books and articles, most notably Why the Wars in Yugoslavia? (Belgrade & Novi Sad, 1993), The Shattering of the Soul (Belgrade, 1997), Tortures in Camps in Bosnia and Hercegovina during the War 1992-1995 (Sarajevo, 2003, foreword) and Srebrenica: From Denial to Confession (Belgrade, 2005, foreword, first and second edition).

CARL BETHKE is an historian and research fellow at the Free University of Berlin. He studied history and archeology in Berlin and Hamburg and wrote his M.A.-thesis on The National Question in Bosnia-Herzegovina after the Second World War. He has held grants and fellowships at the Universities of Regensburg and Frankfurt/Oder, as well as a lectureship in Osijek, Croatia. Since 1999, he has worked and taught at the Institute for Eastern Europe at the Free University of Berlin. His dissertation is on the Nazification of Ethnic Germans in Interwar Yugoslavia. His postdoctoral research project on Jewish-German relations in Croatia is co-sponsored by the Commissioner for Cultural and Media Affairs of the German Government.

NATALIJA BAŠIĆ je tokom 90-ih radila na Hamburškom institutu za sociološka istraživanja. Od 2002. do 2005. je bila research fellow na Institutu za istočnoevropske studije na Univerzitetu u Berlinu (Freie Universität Berlin) i direktor Jugoistočne Evrope (Srbija i Hrvatska) za istraživačku grupu Tradicije historijske svijesti, osnovana od strane Volkswagen fondacije. Glavno težište njenih interesa uključuje historijsku svijest, razvoj identiteta i političko nasilje kao i specifične aspekte jugoslavenske i postsocijalističke historije koristeći kvalitativni pristup. Trenutno, Bašić radi na komparativnoj analizi tradicija historijske svijesti i sprovodi istraživanje ratnih svjedočenja u tzv. „migrantskim zajednicama“ u Njemačkoj i Švicarskoj. Također istražuje uticaj ratova u bivšoj Jugoslaviji na političke orijentacije migranata i izbjeglica sa tih prostora. Autorica je knjige Krieg als Abenteuer. Feindbilder und Gewalt aus der Perspektive ex-jugoslawischer Soldaten i brojnih članaka.
