Information for Teachers & Parents

Teachers must be aware that Germany is interested in recruiting foreign students. They are in the unique position of being able to convey the message to both students and parents:

LEARNING GERMAN & STUDYING IN GERMANY CAN BE VERY REWARDING

The Goethe-Institut can determine which language test is needed and can offer help in preparation:

High school juniors who have outstanding achievements in STEM subjects (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) may apply for the STUDY BRIDGE scholarship program. This program is designed to provide linguistic and subject and subject-matter-specific preparation for students planning to enroll in a German university.

The STUDY BRIDGE Program is organized by the Goethe-Institut, the Pädagogischer Austauschdienst (PAD), and the German American Partnership Program (GAPP).
